This week's single person is Charlotte Ramirez, a 25-year-old web designer. Her father is Argentinian and her mother is American. She lives in San Francisco, and she doesn't have a partner right now. Her mother, Alice, chooses a man she thinks is perfect for her daughter and her best friend, Katie, chooses another. Then Charlotte goes on a date with each man. Which one does she prefer?

“ I love going to the movies, but I often feel like staying at home with a good book,” says Charlotte. “I’m very friendly and sociable and I get along well with most people. I think I have a good sense of humor.”

“What kind of men do I like? Well, I like interesting men who can make me laugh. Physically, I prefer men with a really nice smile who are taller than me. And I don’t usually like men with beards! I like men who are into literature and art, and classical music.”

The place is perfect, the weather is wonderful, but if you're with the wrong person, a vacation can be a disaster...

Joe 28, a flight attendant

Last October, I went on vacation to Thailand for two weeks with my girlfriend, Mia.

The vacation began well. We spent two days in Bangkok and saw the Floating Market and the Royal Palace. But things went wrong when we left Bangkok. I wanted to stay in hostels, which were basic but clean, but Mia said they were too uncomfortable. So we stayed in very expensive hotels. I wanted to experience the local atmosphere, but Mia just wanted to go shopping. I thought I knew Mia well, but you don't know a person until you travel with him or her. It was awful! We argued about everything. For our last four days we went to Ko Chang, a beautiful island. It was like being in paradise. The weather was beautiful and the beaches were wonderful, but we just sunbathed without speaking. We spent our last night back in Bangkok, and we met some travelers from Australia. They were really friendly, and Mia started flirting with one of the boys. That was the end.

“you don't know a person until you travel with him or her”

When we arrived at O'Hare International Airport the next day, we decided to break up. I took hundreds of photos, but when I got home I didn't show them to anyone.

Laura 26, a nurse

Last spring, my best friend Isabelle and I booked a vacation in Costa Rica. We rented a small house for a week with a fantastic view of the ocean. At the last minute another friend, Linda, asked if she could come, too. We felt sorry for her because she had problems with her boyfriend, so we said yes.

Costa Rica was magical and the weather was perfect, but the vacation was a disaster for one simple reason: Linda was so cheap! She has a good job so she's not poor, but she just didn't want to pay for anything. When we went sightseeing, she didn't want to go on any cruises or do any nature activities that cost money. When we went on a zipline tour, she complained that it was too expensive. When we went to have lunch or dinner, she always wanted to go to cheap restaurants or she bought a sandwich and ate it in the house. But the night I invited her and Isabelle out on my birthday, she chose the most expensive things on the menu! The worst thing was that although Isabelle and I paid for the house, Linda never once bought us a coffee or a snack.

“I'd love to go back to Costa Rica one day...but without Linda.”

I'd love to go back to Costa Rica one day...but without Linda.

A moment in history

On November 4th, I arrived in Chicago late in the evening. I wanted to photograph Barack Obama and his family in the convention center, but when I got there I discovered that I didn't have my press pass and I couldn't go inside. I walked around the park outside the center. Although it was November, it was a warm night. The atmosphere was wonderful. When I took this photo, everybody was looking at the TV screens waiting for the election results. Some people were quietly holding hands and smiling – others were tense and nervous. They felt that it was their moment. Suddenly, I realized that this was a better place to be than inside. I was watching Obama's victory through the faces of all these people, African, Hispanic, Chinese, white. At about 11 o'clock the results were announced, and everybody went crazy. People started laughing, shouting, and crying. But when Obama made his speech they all became quiet and emotional. There was only one place to be on the planet that night – and I was there.

Caroline de Bendern was born in 1940. She was the granddaughter of Count Maurice de Bendern, a rich aristocrat who owned a lot of property in Paris and Monaco. Although he had other grandchildren, the Count decided to leave all his money to Caroline. "I never knew why," says Caroline. "Perhaps because I was pretty." He paid for her to go to very expensive schools in England, and he hoped that she would marry well, perhaps a member of a European royal family. But Caroline was a rebel. She went to New York and worked there for a short time as a model. Then, in 1968 when she was 28 years old, she returned to Paris...

- c Look at the highlighted words in the text. Guess their meaning from the context. Check with your teacher or with a dictionary.

We were there!

The first time I noticed this phenomenon was a few years ago, in St. Peter's Basilica in Rome – a crowd of people standing around Michelangelo's Pietà, taking photos with their cameras and cell phones. Then last week I saw it again at the Museum of Modern Art (the MOMA) in New York City. At first, I wasn't too worried when I saw people photographing the paintings. It was a little irritating, but that was all. It didn't make me angry. Then the sad truth hit me. Most of the people were taking photos without looking at the paintings themselves. People were pushing me, not because they were trying to get a better view of the art, but because they wanted to make sure that no one blocked their photo. Was it possible that maybe they were taking the photos so that they could admire the paintings better when they got home? This was very improbable. They were not there to see the paintings, but to take photos to prove that they had been there.

Then it got worse. Now people were taking photos of their partners or friends who were posing next to, or in front of some of the most famous paintings. Neither the photographers nor the person they were photographing had looked at the art itself, although I saw that sometimes they read the label, to make sure that the artist really was famous. At least nobody asked me to take a picture of them together, smiling in front of a Picasso!

I think that photography in museums should be banned, but I also have a less drastic solution. I think that people who want to take a photo of an exhibit should be forced to look at it first, for at least one minute.

900 new words in 3 months

Everyone knows the English language is changing. Every three months, the OED (Oxford English Dictionary) publishes updates to its online dictionary. One recent update contained 900 new words, new expressions, or new meanings for existing words. But where do they all come from?

New words are created in many different ways. We can make a new word by combining two words, like gastropub (gastronomy + pub) or emoticon (emotion + icon). Sometimes we put two words together in a new way, for example, road rage or boy toy.

We also find that nouns can change into verbs. Take the word text. Text was always a noun (from about 1369, according to the OED), but it is now very common as a verb, to text somebody. Other new words already existed, but with a different meaning. For example, tweet was the noise that a bird makes, but now we use it more often (as a verb or a noun) for a message that people put on the social networking site Twitter.

Another way in which we make new words is by "adopting" words from foreign languages, like barista or latte (imported from Italian when coffee shops became really popular in the US in the 1990s).

A lot of new words come from the names of brands or companies, for example, we play music on an iPod and we google information. We also need more general words to describe new technology or new gadgets: Wi-Fi, ringtone, and smartphone are some recent examples.

The invention of new words is not a new phenomenon. The word brunch (breakfast + lunch) first appeared in 1896, newspaper (news + paper) in 1667, and English speakers started to use the word cafe (from French) in the late 19th century. The difference now is how quickly new words and expressions enter the language and how quickly we start to use and understand them.

WHAT DID YOU REALLY DO ON THE WEEKEND?

The next time a friend or co-worker tells you about their amazing weekend, wait a minute before you start feeling jealous – maybe they are inventing it all!

A survey of 5,000 adults has shown that one person in four invents details about their weekend because they want to impress their friends. When they are asked, “Did you have a good weekend?” they don’t like to say that they just stayed at home and watched TV because it sounds boring. So they invent the details. The most common lie that people told was “I went out on Saturday night,” when really they didn’t go anywhere. Other common lies were “I had a romantic dinner,” “I went to a party,” and “I went away for the weekend.”

In fact, in the survey, 30% of people who answered the questions said that they spent their weekend sleeping or resting because they were so tired at the end of the week.

Another 30% said that they needed to work or study on the weekend. Psychologist Corinne Sweet says that people often don’t tell the truth about their weekend “because we don’t want to feel that everyone else is having a better time than us, if we have had a boring weekend doing housework, paperwork, or just resting after a tiring week at work.” She also believes that networking sites such as Facebook and Twitter may be encouraging us to invent details about our social lives. “People can create an illusion of who they want to be and the life they want to live,” says Corinne, “and of course they want that life to seem exciting.”

5 SPEAKING

Shoe stores discover matching crimes

Swedish fictional detectives like Wallander and Lisbeth Salander are famous worldwide. But recently real-life Swedish police were completely puzzled by a mysterious crime. Somebody was stealing expensive designer shoes from shoe stores in Sweden – but not pairs of shoes, only the left shoes, the ones that were on display.

The first robbery took place in a shopping mall in Malmö, Sweden's third-largest city. Staff at a shoe store saw two men stealing at their boutique. They escaped with seven left shoes which – if paired with the right shoes – were worth $1,400.

In the end, it was store's salespeople who pointed the police in the right direction – to Denmark, where stores traditionally display the right shoe in their store windows. "We noticed that left shoes were disappearing in the past, but we never caught the thieves," said a salesperson. "Since we know that Danish stores display the right shoes, we thought that the matching shoes were probably disappearing as well in stores in Denmark." Malmö, home to 125 shoe stores, is only a 30-minute train ride away from Copenhagen, which has several hundred stores, and many brands are sold in both cities.

Yesterday, police finally announced that they had arrested the men responsible for the robberies. But Ms. Johansson, a Swedish shoe store owner, fears that shoe store robberies will increase this year. "Shoes are attractive to steal – they are easy to move and easy to sell and they have become very expensive lately. Also many stores have cut the number of salespeople they employ."

Police in Malmö have thought of asking Danish shoe stores to also display the left shoe. But this won't work. All the thieves will have to do is move to Germany – where they also display the right shoe...

Are we living faster?

Yes, we need to slow down.

5A No time for anything

1 READING & VOCABULARY time expressions

- a Read an article about living faster and match the headings to the paragraphs.

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> No time for Snow White | <input type="checkbox"/> More time on the road |
| <input type="checkbox"/> No time to write | <input type="checkbox"/> No time for Van Gogh |
| <input type="checkbox"/> No time to wait | <input type="checkbox"/> No time to stop |

We're living faster, but are we living better?

People in cities around the world walk 10 percent more quickly than they did twenty years ago. Singapore, a world business center, is at the top of the list for fast walkers.

In the US, there is a book called One-Minute Bedtime Stories for children. These are shorter versions of traditional stories, especially written for busy parents who need to save time.

People aren't as patient as they were in the past. If the elevator takes more than 15 seconds to arrive, people get very impatient because they think they're wasting time. It's exactly the same when an Internet page does not open immediately.

Written communication on the Internet is getting shorter and shorter and using more and more abbreviations, like BRB (be right back) or NP (no problem). Twitter only allows you to use 140 characters, and now a new social networking site has a limit of just ten words.

Even in our free time we do things in a hurry. Twenty years ago when people went to art galleries, they spent ten seconds looking at each picture. Today they spend much less time – just three seconds!

Our cars are faster, but the traffic is worse, so we drive more slowly. The average speed of cars in New York City is 9.3 miles per hour. We spend more time than ever sitting in our cars, feeling stressed because we aren't going to arrive on time.

All big cities are unfriendly – or are they?

Big cities often have a reputation for being rude, unfriendly places for tourists. Journalist Tim Moore went to four cities, London, Rome, Paris, and New York City, to find out if this is true. He went dressed as a foreign tourist and used three (not very scientific!) tests to see which city had the friendliest and most polite inhabitants. The three tests were:

1 The photo test

Tim asked people on the street to take his photo (not just one photo, but several – with his hat, without his hat, etc.). Did he find someone to do it?

2 The shopping test

Tim bought something in a store and gave the salesperson too much money. Did the person give back the extra money?

3 The accident test

Tim pretended to fall down on the street. Did anybody come and help him?

COFFEE We all know that a cup of coffee helps to wake you up in the morning, but several studies show that drinking coffee helps to prevent some illnesses like diabetes and Parkinson's disease. Experts say that you can safely drink three cups of espresso during the day, but if you drink too much coffee it can make you feel anxious or keep you awake at night.

SUNLIGHT Spending a long time in the sun is dangerous and can give you skin cancer. But on the other hand, not spending enough time in the sun is also bad for you because sunlight helps us to produce vitamin D. This vitamin is important for strong bones and a healthy immune system, and it also makes people feel happier. Nowadays, many people don't get enough sunlight because they wear sunscreen all the time, especially on their faces. However, don't spend too long in the sun – 15 minutes a day without sunscreen is a healthy amount, and not at midday.

COMPUTER GAMES You probably worry about how much time you or your children waste playing computer games. But in fact some studies show that these games can help us learn important skills. It seems that computer games stimulate the brain and that people who often play them are probably better at solving problems and making quick decisions. But don't spend too many hours in front of the computer – not more than about two hours a day.

4 READING

- a Read an article about the actor Hugh Laurie. What two things do Hugh Laurie and Dr. House have in common?

A PESSIMIST PLAYS A PESSIMIST

DR. GREGORY HOUSE, the main character in the hit TV series House, M.D., is famous for being a pessimist. But it is not only Dr. House who is a pessimist. Hugh Laurie, the actor who plays him, is a pessimist, too.

Laurie never thought that House, M.D. was going to be a success. Even after seven seasons, he still feels pessimistic about it. He said in a recent interview, "If we do a bad show next week, they'll say, 'That's it. No more.' It'll just stop. I am, of course, someone who is constantly expecting a plane to drop on my head, if not today then tomorrow."

Like Dr. House, Laurie is also a talented musician and is passionate about the blues. He recently went to New Orleans to record an album in which he plays 15 of his favorite songs. But of course, he doesn't think that people will like it.

When he was asked on a TV show why he was so pessimistic about life, Laurie said it was because he is Scottish. "I definitely think that's where it comes from."

Because of his reputation as a pessimist, people always talk to him about positive thinking. He says that complete strangers come up to him on the street and say, "Cheer up, it'll never happen!"

- b Read the article again. Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false). Say why.

- 1 Hugh Laurie always thinks the worst will happen.
- 2 He thinks they will make many more seasons of House, M.D.
- 3 He doesn't think his album will be successful.

Steve Smith from Devon in the UK met Carmen Ruiz-Perez from Spain 17 years ago when they were both in their 20s. Carmen was studying English at a language school in Steve's town, Torbay.

They fell in love and got engaged. But a year later, Carmen moved to France for work, and the long-distance relationship first cooled and then ended.

A few years later Steve tried to get in touch with Carmen again, but she had changed her address in Paris. So he sent her a letter to her mother's address in Spain. In the letter, he asked her if she was married and if she ever thought of him. He gave her his telephone number and asked her to get in touch. But Carmen's mother didn't send the letter to her daughter and it fell down behind the fireplace, where it stayed for ten years...

 - 5 Most top athletes use music when they run.
 - 6 Music can help amateur runners to run faster.
 - 7 The journalist chose his music for the marathon.
 - 8 All the songs helped him run faster.
- c Look at the highlighted words or phrases in the text. Guess their meaning from the context. Check with your teacher or with a dictionary.

Can music really make you run faster?

Costas Karageorghis, a sports psychologist, calls music "sport's legal drug." He says that exercising with music can improve athletic performance by 15 percent. The music must be carefully chosen so that the tempo or "beat" is synchronized with the exercise you are doing. According to Professor Karageorghis, music also makes you feel less pain and makes an exercise session less boring and more enjoyable.

Gym chain, Fitness First, recognizes the importance of music to workouts and plays music in all its clubs. The most popular song for male gym members is Survivor's Eye of the Tiger, while women love Abba's Dancing Queen.

Music works well with weightlifting, and other repetitive actions, but it can also help with running. The best example of this is Haile Gebreselassie, perhaps the world's greatest distance runner, who used the techno-pop song Scatman as a metronome when he broke the world 2,000 meter record. But if music was so important to Gebreselassie, why do other top runners never race with headphones?

Karageorghis says "Research has shown that for most top athletes music is less effective. Elite athletes focus more on their bodies, and less on outside stimuli like music." So although music can help amateur runners run faster and further, most top athletes prefer silence.

I decided to try running with music myself. I was going to run a half marathon, and a sports doctor gave me the perfect playlist of songs for running. When I did the race, I found that some of the tracks, like Von Kleet's Walking on Me, made running easier. Others made me want to throw away the mp3 player. When I crossed the line, I had beaten my previous personal best by one minute, but was it because of the music? To be honest, I felt it was probably because of the extra training.

- g Do you think the advice in the article would be good for people in your country? Why (not)? Do you think the advice would be the same for a girl meeting her boyfriend's parents for the first time?

How to... Survive Meeting Your Girlfriend's Parents for the First Time

It's stressful, but these top tips can help you to get it right...

Tips

- 1 You need to do some "homework" before you go. Ask your girlfriend about her parents. Where does her mother work? Does her father like basketball? Do you have any common interests? If you do this, it will be easy to have a conversation with them.
- 2 Make sure you dress in the right impression. Don't wear a suit, but don't just wear your old jeans and the Che Guevara T-shirt you bought at the flea market.
- 3 Be punctual. It's very important not to be late for a first meeting.
- 4 When they greet you at the door shake the father's hand firmly (no father likes a weak handshake!). Ask your girlfriend what kind of greeting her mom will prefer.
- 5 Call her parents Mr. and Mrs. (Smith) until they ask you to call them "Dave" and "Maria."
- 6 Be ready to answer questions about yourself! Her parents will want to know everything about you and your ambitions. Make a good impression!
- 7 If you are invited for a meal, eat everything they give you and say something positive about the meal, like "This is absolutely delicious!" Offer to wash the dishes after the meal (but not them that you are helpful).
- 8 Be yourself, and don't be a "yes" man. If they ask you for your opinion, be honest. However, try not to talk about controversial subjects – this isn't the moment to give your views on religion and politics!
- 9 If the conversation is dying and you can't think of what to say, ask them what your partner was like as a child. This is a smart tactic! All parents love talking about their children, and it shows you have a deep interest in their daughter.

2 GRAMMAR

uses of the infinitive

- a Match sentences a–d from the article with rules 1–4.

- a If you do this, it will be easy to have a conversation with them.
- b Offer to do the dishes after the meal (to show them that you are helpful).
- c If the conversation is dying and you can't think of what to say, ask them what your partner was like as a child.
- d You need to do some "homework" before you go.

Use the infinitive...

- 1 after some verbs, e.g., need, want, etc.
 - 2 after adjectives
 - 3 to give a reason for doing something
 - 4 after a question word, e.g., who, what, how weak form of to, linking

- a 3 26) Listen to two sentences. Is to stressed? How is it pronounced?

I want to come.
He decided to leave.

Linking words with the same consonant sound

When a word ends in a consonant sound and the next word begins with the same or a very similar sound, we often link the words together and only make the consonant sound once. This happens when a verb ends in /t/ or /d/ before to, so want to is pronounced /'wanta/ and decided to is pronounced /dr'saidətə/.

- b 3 27) Listen and write six sentences. Then practice saying them.

- c Work in pairs. A ask B the first six questions. B give as much information as you can. Change roles for the last six questions.

- Have you ever offered to look after somebody's dog (or other pet)?
- Do you think it is difficult to stay friends with an ex-boyfriend/girlfriend?

I will survive (in Spanish)... or will I?

Americans have a reputation for being bad at learning languages, but is it really true? I work for a newspaper that was doing a series of articles about this. As an experiment, they asked me to try and learn a completely new language for one month. Then I had to go to the country and take some “tests” to see if I could “survive” in different situations. I decided to study Spanish because I would like to visit Puerto Rico and other places in Latin America in the future. If I go, I don’t want to be the typical American who expects everyone else to speak English.

I took a one-month intensive course in Spanish at a language school in Washington, D.C. I was a complete beginner, but I soon found that some Spanish words are very similar to English ones. For example, hola isn’t very different from “hello” and inglés is very similar to “English.” But other things were more difficult, for example the verbs in Spanish change for each person, and that means you have to learn a lot of different endings. My biggest problem was the pronunciation. I found it very difficult to pronounce some letters in Spanish, especially r and j. I downloaded sentences in Spanish onto my smartphone, and I listened and repeated them again and again.

When my course ended, I went to San Juan, Puerto Rico for a long weekend to take my tests. A Spanish teacher named Nilda came with me and gave me a score out of 10 for each test and then a final score for everything.

These were the tests and the rules:

Too macho to talk?

Are you a man who finds it difficult to talk about feelings and problems with your friends and family?

Send us your problem, and you will get advice from our readers.

Problem A

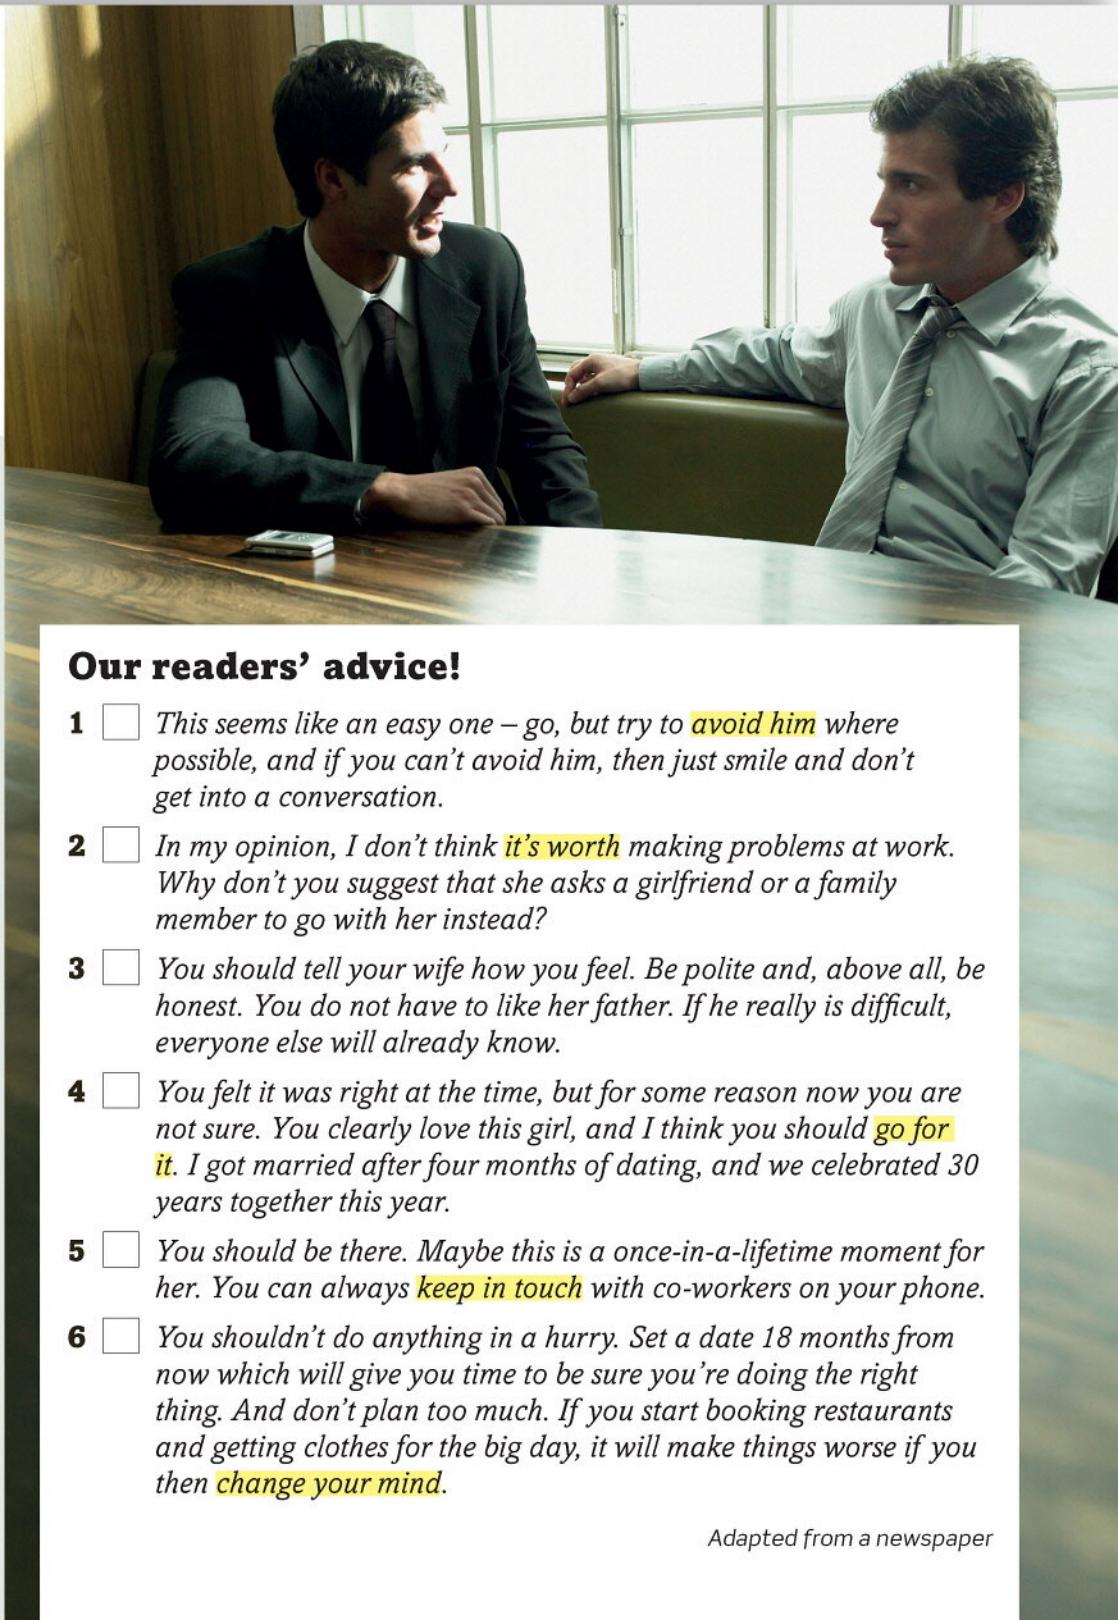

Three weeks ago, I asked my girlfriend to marry me – we have been together for 18 months. It was an impulse, but now I am having second thoughts. I am deeply in love with her, but is this too soon? Please help.

Problem B

My wife is running her first marathon in Orlando, Florida, and she really wants me to go and watch her. However, there is a business conference in New York the same weekend, and my boss would like me to attend. What should I do?

Problem C

My wife wants us to spend two weeks in Cape Cod, Massachusetts in the summer with her family, but I find her father really difficult to get along with. Should I go and risk having arguments all the time or should I suggest separate vacations this year?

Our readers' advice!

- 1 This seems like an easy one – go, but try to avoid him where possible, and if you can't avoid him, then just smile and don't get into a conversation.
- 2 In my opinion, I don't think it's worth making problems at work. Why don't you suggest that she asks a girlfriend or a family member to go with her instead?
- 3 You should tell your wife how you feel. Be polite and, above all, be honest. You do not have to like her father. If he really is difficult, everyone else will already know.
- 4 You felt it was right at the time, but for some reason now you are not sure. You clearly love this girl, and I think you should go for it. I got married after four months of dating, and we celebrated 30 years together this year.
- 5 You should be there. Maybe this is a once-in-a-lifetime moment for her. You can always keep in touch with co-workers on your phone.
- 6 You shouldn't do anything in a hurry. Set a date 18 months from now which will give you time to be sure you're doing the right thing. And don't plan too much. If you start booking restaurants and getting clothes for the big day, it will make things worse if you then change your mind.

Murphy's Law took its name from Captain Edward Murphy, an American aerospace engineer from the 1940s. He was trying to improve safety for pilots flying military planes. Girl

BY O. HENRY

PART 1

"I've found where she lives," said the detective quietly. "Here is the address."

Hartley took the piece of paper. On it were the words "Vivienne Arlington, No. 341 East 49th Street."

5 "She moved there a week ago," said the detective. "I can follow her if you want. It will only cost you $7 a day and expenses..."

"No, thank you," interrupted Hartley. "I only wanted the address. How much is it?"

10 "One day's work," said the detective. "Ten dollars."

Hartley paid the man. Then he left the office and took a tram to Broadway. After walking a short distance he arrived at the building that he was looking for. Hartley rang the bell. The door opened.

15 He went in and began to climb the stairs.

On the fourth floor he saw her standing in an open door. Vivienne was about twenty-one. Her hair was red gold, and her eyes were sea-blue. She was wearing a white top and a dark skirt.

20 "Vivienne," said Hartley, "you didn't answer my last letter. It took me a week to find your new address! Why didn't you answer me? You knew I was waiting to see you and hear from you."

PART 2

The girl looked out the window dreamily.
“Mr. Hartley,” she said slowly, “I don’t know what to say to you. I understand all the advantages of your offer, and sometimes I feel sure that I could be happy with you. But, then sometimes I am less sure. I was born a city girl, and I am not sure that I would enjoy living a quiet life in the suburbs.”

“My dear girl,” said Hartley, “You will have everything that you want. You can come to the city for the theater, for shopping, and to visit your friends as often as you want. You can trust me, can’t you?”

“I can trust you completely,” she said, smiling at him. “I know you are the kindest of men, and that the girl who you get will be very lucky. I heard all about you when I was at the Montgomerys’.”

“Ah!” exclaimed Hartley, “I remember so well the evening I first saw you at the Montgomerys’. I will never forget that dinner. Come on, Vivienne, promise me. I want you. Nobody else will ever give you such a happy home.”

Vivienne didn’t answer. Suddenly Hartley was suspicious. “Tell me, Vivienne,” he asked, “is there – is there someone else?”

“You shouldn’t ask that, Mr. Hartley,” she said. “But I will tell you. There is one other person – but I haven’t promised him anything.”

“Vivienne,” said Hartley, masterfully. “You must be mine.”

Vivienne looked him in the eye.

“Do you think for one moment,” she said calmly, “that I could come to your home while Héloise is there?”

CAN YOU UNDERSTAND THIS TEXT?

- a Read the article once. What does Michael think is the main reason Americans aren't good at speaking languages?
- b Read the article again and check the reasons why, according to the writer, some Americans are bad at languages.
- 1 Americans rarely travel abroad.
2 English is an international language.
3 Americans who live abroad often find the local language too difficult to learn.
4 Americans who live abroad often don't socialize with the local people.
5 Language teachers in American schools are not very good.
6 Many American middle schools don't have foreign-language teachers.
7 American children don't know enough about their own grammar.
8 Americans don't want to waste money learning languages.
- c Look at the highlighted words or phrases in the text. Guess their meaning from the context. Check with your teacher or with a dictionary.

Why are some Americans so bad at learning languages?

Michael Reece has lived and worked in France for fifteen years.

ome Americans are bad at speaking foreign languages. It's a fact. In any city around the world, you can find American tourists asking for the restaurant menu in English. At best, they will try to say a couple of phrases they have learned from a phrase book, but they will stop making an effort the moment they discover the waiter knows a little English.

I read a survey once that found that only 20 percent of Americans could speak a language other than English in their own homes. So why is this? I think laziness is possibly the key factor. There is a general feeling among Americans that "everyone speaks English nowadays, so it's not worth learning other languages." In multinational companies, English is often the official language of communication with the company. Also, Americans who live abroad can always find other American expatriates to talk to or to watch American TV with—all reasons for never bothering to learn the local language.

The situation in American schools doesn't help. In 1997, about 75 percent of American public middle schools offered foreign languages. Today, that number has gone down to 58 percent. And even the few students who study foreign languages at school don't have as many hours of classes as students in other countries. I think it is also a problem that American children don't study English grammar anymore, which makes it more difficult for them to learn the grammar of another language.

- a Do you know of any kinds of treatment for people who have phobias?
- b Read the text and mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).
- 1 Thirty percent of people have some kind of phobia.
 - 2 Doctors have created a new drug to cure phobias.
 - 3 In exposure therapy, people learn to relax when they are exposed to something they are afraid of.
 - 4 Exposure therapy is always successful.
 - 5 The drug affects the way people learn and remember things.
 - 6 The study showed that the drug helped people to lose their fear.

Scared of spiders?

Take this pill.

There are many different kinds of phobias, and they affect at least a quarter of the population. But doctors believe that they may soon have a cure. They have discovered that a drug, which is given to patients suffering from tuberculosis, can also help people to overcome their phobias.

The normal treatment for people with strong phobias is some kind of exposure therapy. The most commonly used exposure therapy involves gradually exposing people to the object or situation that produces the fear. For example, if you have a dentist phobia, you might first sit in the waiting room of a dentist, then talk to the dentist, and then sit in the dentist's chair. These exposures are combined with relaxation techniques.

However, exposure therapy does not work for everybody, and doctors think that the new drug, which causes changes to a part of the brain that is used in learning and memory, could be used in the future to make this therapy more effective. Michael Davis at Emory University School of Medicine in Atlanta, Georgia did a study with 30 acrophobics – people who are scared of heights – and put them in a glass elevator that appeared to go up and down. The people who were given the pill felt much less afraid than those who took a placebo.

- c With a partner, guess the meaning of the highlighted words and phrases.
- d What stages of exposure therapy do you think could be used for someone with
a) arachnophobia b) claustrophobia?

Is too much choice making us unhappy?

1 _____. Years ago there were only two kinds of coffee – caffeinated or decaffeinated. But nowadays when you go into a coffee shop in the US you are given about twenty different options. Do you want a cappuccino, a latte, a caramel macchiato, an Americano, or a white mocha?

2 _____. In big supermarkets we have to choose between thousands of products – my local supermarket has 35 different kinds of milk! When we are buying clothes or electrical gadgets, looking for a hotel on a travel website, or just deciding which TV channel to watch, we are constantly forced to choose from hundreds of possibilities.

3 _____. However, university researchers have discovered that too much choice is making us feel unhappy and dissatisfied. The problem is that we have so many options that we get stressed every time we have to make a decision, because we are worried about making the wrong one. Then when we choose one thing, we feel bad because we think we are missing other opportunities, and this makes us dissatisfied with what we have chosen.

4 _____. Professor Mark Lepper at Stanford University in the US found that people who tried six kinds of jam felt happier with their choice than those who were offered 24 jams to taste.

5 _____. Professor Lepper suggests that we should try to relax when we have to choose something to buy. “Don’t take these choices too seriously or it will become stressful,” he says. “If you pick a sofa from IKEA in 30 seconds, you’ll feel better than if you spend hours researching sofas – because you won’t know what you’re missing.”

DOLPHINS SAVE SWIMMERS FROM A SHARK ATTACK

Lifeguard Rob Howes, his daughter Niccy, 15, Karina Cooper, 15, and Helen Slade, 16, were swimming over 300 feet out to sea at Ocean Beach in New Zealand when suddenly seven dolphins swam toward them.

"They were behaving really weirdly," Mr. Howes said, "swimming in circles around us, and hitting the water with their tails." One dolphin swam toward Mr. Howes and Helen, who were about 65 feet away from the other two, and was trying to push them toward the other two girls.

"Then suddenly I saw another huge fish swimming around me and Helen," said Mr. Howes. It was in fact a 9 foot-long great white shark.

"It was only about six feet away from us," he said. At that point, he realized that the dolphins "were trying to herd the four of us together to protect us."

The shark then went toward the other two girls. Mr. Howes was terrified, especially because one of the swimmers was his daughter. But the dolphins pushed the four swimmers back together and circled around them for another 40 minutes. Mr. Howes decided not to tell the three girls a shark was sharing the water with them. Fortunately, the shark finally swam away, and the swimmers all reached the beach safely.

"I swim with dolphins perhaps three or four times a year, and I have never seen them behave like that," said Mr. Howes. However, dolphin expert Ingrid Visser said that there have been other reports from around the world about dolphins protecting swimmers. She said that, in this case, the dolphins probably sensed the humans were in danger and took action to protect them.

6 (459) SONG The Final Countdown

The hardest lesson to learn in sports is how to lose with dignity, without blaming your defeat on the referees or refusing to shake hands with your opponent. Here are some famous moments when losing was just too hard...

In 1981 at Wimbledon a young John McEnroe was serving. The umpire said that his serve was ¹_____, but McEnroe thought it was ²_____. He became furious and shouted "You CANNOT be serious!" at the umpire. He also called the umpire "an incompetent fool!"

In the 2003 Track and Field World Championships the 100-meter runner, Jon Drummond, was disqualified for a false start. Drummond lay ³_____ on the track and began to cry. Two hours later his coach told journalists: "He's still crying. We're making him drink water because he's becoming dehydrated."

In the 1982 German Grand Prix Nelson Piquet was winning the race. He was trying to pass Eliseo Salazar (who was last in the race), but Salazar didn't let him go ⁴_____ him, and Piquet crashed into Salazar. Piquet jumped ⁵_____ his car and started trying to hit and kick Salazar (without much success!).

South Korean soccer player Ahn Jung-Hwan scored the goal that sent Italy ⁶_____ the 2002 World Cup when they beat them 2–1. But Jung-Hwan also played for the Italian soccer club Perugia. After the match the president of the club, Luciano Gaucci, announced that the player's contract would not be renewed. "That gentleman will never set foot in Perugia again," Gaucci said. "I have no intention of paying a salary to somebody who has ruined Italian soccer." Gaucci later apologized, but Ahn Jung-Hwan left the club and never went back to an Italian club.

When England won the Rugby World Cup in 2003 by beating Australia in the last minute of the match, the Australian Prime minister, John Howard, was so angry that in the medals ceremony he almost threw the medals at the English players. His behavior was described by a journalist as being "Like an unhappy five-year-old at a birthday party who starts throwing toys around."

I get up at 4:45 a.m. and leave the house at 5:20.

Yes. I usually set my radio alarm to come on at 4:30 so that I can wake up slowly as I listen to the world news. I set my phone alarm for 4:45 and leave it on the other side of the room so I have to get up to turn it off!

It depends – some mornings I feel rested and awake, but other mornings it's hard to get out of bed. It depends on the season. I find I need much more sleep in the winter.

If I'm slow to get up, then I wait until I'm in the studio before having breakfast, but most mornings I have a bowl of cereal before I leave the house.

That depends on the season, too. In the summer I usually wait until the morning to decide. But in the winter I often leave clothes out the night before so that I can stay in bed until the last minute!

A car picks me up at 5:20.

In the winter, any time between 8:30 and 9:30 p.m. In the summer, usually more like 9:00 to 10:00 p.m.

8

What social life? I certainly can't go out for a wild night during the week, but I'm lucky because a lot of my closest friends live near me, so I can see them in the evenings and still go to bed early.

Sometimes I think I would like to have more normal working hours, but I love my job so much that I'd never want to give it up. The buzz of being "live" on the radio early in the morning as people start their days is really wonderful.

HERE'S A SECRET: Gossip might be good for you

We all enjoy gossiping about people we know, although sometimes we might feel guilty about it afterward. However, new research shows that gossiping might be good for us.

Professor McAndrew, a professor of psychology, believes that gossiping is in our genes, and we feel pleasure when we share interesting information. McAndrew says that gossiping is a social skill, and we need to learn to do it well. According to the professor, gossip can be a positive thing when people use it to build connections with other people in their social group. But it can be a negative thing when somebody gossips about another person only to make themselves feel more important in the group.

Professor McAndrew's research also showed that people were happy to pass on good news but only if it was about a friend. They also enjoyed passing on negative information about other people when it was about somebody they disliked.

Another thing that the new study showed was that men and women gossip differently. In general, the men in the study shared gossip with their wives or girlfriends, but not with their male friends. Women however, gossiped with both partners and friends.

Heart couple's amazing coincidence

When Suzanne met Alistair Cotton at a swimming pool in 1995, they were amazed to discover that they both suffered from the same extremely rare heart condition. They started going out together and fell in love, but several months later, they discovered an even bigger coincidence.

Almost twenty years earlier when they were children (Suzanne was seven and Alistair was fourteen), they had both had a lifesaving heart operation in the same hospital, on the same day, performed by the same heart surgeon. After their operations, they had spent several days recovering in the same hospital ward (although they have no memories of seeing or speaking to each other.) They certainly had no idea that twenty years later they would meet and fall in love with the child in the next bed. Suzanne, now 43, said, "We were very shocked by the coincidence. We were obviously destined to be together."

Alistair continued to have difficulties with his heart, and he had to have another major heart operation. As soon as he woke up after the operation, he proposed to Suzanne, and the couple got married in 2002.

The following year, Suzanne became pregnant, and baby Hannah was born in 2004 and is now a happy, healthy child who shows no signs of having inherited any heart problems from her parents. Suzanne said, "Many heart patients can't have children or their children are born with heart problems themselves, so for our amazing story to have such a happy ending is just wonderful."

5A HOW FAST IS YOUR LIFE?

Students A+B

Check your partner's score and tell him or her. Then read to see what it means.

How to score:

- 1 point for never
- 2 points for sometimes
- 3 points for often

Is your score between 6 and 9? You are living life in the slow lane. Compared to most people, you take things easy and don't get stressed by modern-day living. You are patient, relaxed, and easygoing. Most of the time this is good news, but sometimes it can be a problem. For example, are you sometimes late for appointments?

Is your score between 10 and 14? You have a medium pace of life. You are probably somebody who can change the speed at which you live depending on the situation.

Is your score between 15 and 18? You are living life in the fast lane, rushing around and trying to do many different activities and projects at the same time. You are impatient and you find it difficult to relax. You are probably very productive, but your relationships and health could suffer as a result.

5B THE FRIENDLIEST CITY Student A

- a Read about what happened when Tim used the three tests in London. Try to remember the information.

London

I was near Charring Cross station. I stopped a man who was walking pretty slowly down the street, and I said, "Excuse me, could you take my photo?" The man said, "No, no, no time for that," and just continued walking. Then I asked a business man in a gray suit who was walking toward the train station. He took one photo, but when I asked him to take another one, he walked away quickly.

The shopping test

I went to a souvenir store on Oxford Street, and I bought a key ring and a red bus. The red bus was very expensive. The total price was forty pounds. I gave the man a hundred pounds. He gave me sixty pounds back.

The accident test

For this test, I went down into the Tube (the London Underground). As I went down the stairs, I fell down and sat on the floor. A man immediately stopped and looked down at me. I thought he was going to help me, but he didn't—he just said, "Why don't you look where you're going?"

- b In your own words, tell B and C what happened in London.

7A HOW TO... Student A

- a Read the article How to survive at a party. Then without looking at the text, tell B the five tips. When you finish, decide with B which is the most important tip.

How to ... Survive at a Party (when you don't know anybody)

- 1 Don't stand in the corner. You need to be positive. Find somebody you think you would like to talk to and introduce yourself.
- 2 Try to ask impersonal questions like "I love your bag. Where did you get it?" This will help to start a conversation.
- 3 Don't dominate the conversation. When you are nervous, it's very easy to talk about yourself all the time. Nobody wants to listen to your life story when they have just met you for the first time.
- 4 Smile! Use your body language to give a positive, friendly impression.
- 5 If you need to escape from a really boring person, say that you are going to get a drink or that you need to go to the bathroom. Don't come back!

- b Act out the dialogue. Use the adverbs in parentheses to help you, and remember to pause at the commas.
- H (anxiously) Vivienne, you didn't answer my last letter. It took me a week to find your new address! Why didn't you answer me? You knew I was waiting to see you and hear from you.
- V (slowly) Mr. Hartley, I don't know what to say to you. I understand all the advantages of your offer, and sometimes I feel sure that I could be happy with you. But then sometimes I am less sure. I was born a city girl, and I am not sure that I would enjoy living a quiet life in the suburbs.
- H My dear girl, you will have everything that you want. You can come to the city for the theater, for shopping, and to visit your friends as often as you want. You can trust me, can't you?
- V (seriously) I trust you completely. I know you are the kindest of men, and that the girl who you get will be very lucky. I heard all about you when I was at the Montgomerys'.
- H Ah! I remember so well the evening I first saw you at the Montgomerys'. I will never forget that dinner. Come on, Vivienne, promise me. I want you. Nobody else will ever give you such a happy home.
- (suspiciously) Tell me, Vivienne, is there – is there someone else?
- V (defensively) You shouldn't ask that, Mr. Hartley. But I will tell you. There is one other person – but I haven't promised him anything.
- H (masterfully) Vivienne, you must be mine.
- V (calmly) Do you think for one moment that I could come to your home while Héloïse is there?
- c Change roles.

- c Listen to B say sentence 2. If it's the same as 2 above, say "That's right." If not, say "Try again" until B gets it right.
- d Continue taking turns with sentences 3–12.

In the city

- 1 The answer is b. Dogs like to attack any part of you that is moving, usually hands or arms. It is also dangerous to turn your back on the dog. You shouldn't look the dog in its eyes because this will make him angry. Shouting "down" or "go away" at the dog will not work because dogs usually only react to their master's voice.
- 2 The answer is a. Bees will usually fly out of an open window, but don't wave your hands around as bees follow movement and might try to sting you. And you shouldn't hit the bee because this will make the bee very angry. Of course, as soon as you can you should stop the car and open the doors.

9A WOULD YOU KNOW WHAT TO DO? Student C

- a Read the answers to In the water.

In the water

- 5 The answer is c. If a jellyfish stings you, you should clean the sting with vinegar because this stops the poison. If you don't have any vinegar, use ocean water. But don't use fresh water, for example water from a tap or mineral water, because this will make the sting hurt more. And you shouldn't rub the sting because this will make it worse, too. After you have washed the sting, you should clean off any bits of tentacles that are on your skin. And take a pain killer!
 - 6 The answer is a. If you are near the shore and the shark is not too close, you can probably swim to the shore without attracting its attention. For this reason it is important to swim smoothly and not splash or make sudden movements. Keeping still is dangerous because if the shark swims in your direction, it will see you and it will attack you. Don't shout because shouting will provoke the shark and it will attack you.
- b Listen to A and B tell you the answers in the other sections (In the city and In the country). Check your answers.
- c Tell A and B the right answers for In the water and why the other ones are wrong.

6 A BIOGRAPHY

- a Read the biography of Norah Jones. Then cover the text and try to remember three things about her.
- b Put the verbs in parentheses in the simple past or present perfect.

Writing a biography – use of tenses

If you write a biography of a person who is dead, the verbs will all be in the simple past.

If the person is alive, all finished actions will be in the simple past (such as the person's early life, e.g., was born, went to college, etc., or specific actions in their life, e.g., got married, moved to another town, etc.).

However, you must use the present perfect for unfinished actions that started in the past and are still true now (and which might change), e.g., She has won nine Grammy awards. She has appeared in several movies.

Use the simple present (or present continuous) to talk about the present day, e.g., She lives in New York. She's working on a new album.

- c Write a biography of someone you know, or of a famous person, who is still alive. Write three paragraphs. Make notes before you begin.

Paragraph 1	where and when they were born, their early life (simple past)

Paragraph 3	their later life and their life now (simple past, present perfect, simple present / present continuous)

7 AN OPINION ESSAY

- a Read the article once. Do you agree with what it says?

"THERE ARE TOO MANY SPORTS SHOWS ON TV."

DO YOU AGREE?

Every time I turn on the television, I'm sure to find a sports show on one of the channels. If I change channels, there will probably be a sports show or a sports report on other channels, too, especially on the weekend. ¹*In my opinion* there are definitely too many sports shows on TV for the following reasons.

² _____, if you compare sports with other TV shows, sports completely dominate. The only time you can watch talk shows or game shows or soap operas is on weekday mornings or afternoons. This is not fair to people who like other kinds of TV shows, ³ _____ dramas, political shows, or documentaries.

Secondly, the sports shows on TV are not only the important games. Every week they show boring games from college and even high school divisions.

⁴ _____, I also believe that, on the weekend, most people want to relax in front of the television. Many people, including me, don't like sports, and prefer to see good movies or funny comedy shows.

⁵ _____, I think that even on news programs there is too much information about sports. It is very annoying when they talk about sports for hours every day, especially when there are more important things happening in the world.

⁶ _____, I think TV should show fewer sports shows, especially on the weekend. ⁷ _____ it should show other kinds of shows and more movies. On news programs they should talk about important things that are happening in the world, not about sports.

- b Read the article again and complete the blanks with a word or phrase from the list. Use capital letters where necessary.

finally firstly for example thirdly in my opinion instead to conclude

- c You are going to write an article called "There are too many reality shows on TV". Do you agree? With a partner decide if you agree or not, and think of three or four reasons.

- d Write the article. Write four or five paragraphs.

Paragraph 1	Write an introduction. You can adapt the introduction in the model article. Say if you agree or not.
Middle paragraphs	Give your reasons. Begin the paragraphs with Firstly , Secondly , (Thirdly) and Finally .
Last paragraph	Write a conclusion (this should be a summary of what you write in the middle paragraphs).

- e Check your article for mistakes (grammar, punctuation, and spelling). Show your article to other students in the class. How many of your classmates agree with you? How many disagree?

1 14))

My first impression of Alexander was that he was much older than me. In fact, he was 32, but I thought he was older. But when we started talking, I really liked him. He was extroverted and funny, and he had a very good sense of humor. He works for a TV station, and he told me a lot of good stories about his work. He was also interested in the same things as me – art and music, and we talked a lot about that. Physically he wasn't really my type. It's hard to say why. He was tall and dark and very good-looking, and he had a nice smile but there just wasn't any chemistry between us. I could imagine going to a concert or the theater with him, but as a friend. Sorry Mom, but no.

1 15))

When I first saw Oliver I thought he looked warm and friendly, and more attractive than Alexander. He was tall with short blond hair, and he had amazing blue eyes, kind of like the actor Ryan Gosling. He was kind of shy and quiet at first but when we started talking he relaxed, and we found we had a lot of things in common – we both like books and movies. He was generous, too – he wanted to pay for everything. I really enjoyed the evening. When it was time to go, he asked for my phone number and said he wanted to meet again. We walked out of the restaurant and went to look for a taxi. And then something happened, and I knew that it was impossible for me to go out with him. He said "Finally!" and took out a pack of cigarettes. That was it. I could never have a boyfriend who was a smoker. I think maybe for my next date I'm going to choose the man myself. I don't think another person can really choose a partner for you.

1 24))

Mr and Mrs Clark and Percy is by artist David Hockney, and it's considered to be one of the greatest British paintings of the 20th century. It was painted in 1971, and it's a portrait of two of his friends, Ossie Clark and his wife Celia, and their cat Percy. Ossie Clark and Celia were fashion designers, and they had a very successful clothes store in London. In the 1960s, they dressed a lot of the famous pop stars of the time, including The Rolling Stones and Eric Clapton.

Hockney painted Ossie and Celia a few months after they got married in their apartment at Notting Hill in London. He painted them in their bedroom because he liked the light there, and on the wall on the left of the window you can see one of his own paintings.

Mr and Mrs Clark and Percy is a very big painting, approximately 9 feet, 10 inches wide and 6 feet, 7 inches high. The couple is wearing typical clothes of the late 1960s. Celia is wearing a long dress, and in fact she was expecting a baby at that time. Her husband isn't wearing any shoes, and he's putting his feet into the rug. This was because Hockney had a lot of problems painting his feet. He just couldn't get them right.

Hockney said that his aim with this painting was to paint the relationship between the two people. Traditionally, when a painter paints a married couple the woman is sitting down and the man is standing up. In this painting, the man is sitting and the woman is standing. Usually in a painting the married couple is close together, but in this painting they are separated by a big open window which symbolizes the distance between them. The white cat, sitting on Mr. Clark, is a symbol of infidelity. It seems that Hockney didn't think that their marriage was going to be very happy, and in fact, the couple got divorced four years later.

Celia often posed as a model for Hockney, but she says that this painting, his most famous picture of her, is not her favorite. She said, "It's a wonderful painting, but it makes me look too heavy." In 1996, twenty five years after this picture was painted, Ossie Clark died. He was murdered by his lover in his Kensington apartment.

My name's Jenny Zielinski. I live and work in New York. I'm the assistant editor of a magazine called NewYork24seven. A few months ago, I visited our office in London to learn more about the company. I met the manager, Daniel O'Connor. I had lots of meetings with him, of course. And a working dinner on my birthday... But I spent more time with Rob Walker. He's one of the writers on the London magazine. We had coffees together. We went sightseeing. I even helped Rob buy a shirt! He was fun to be with. I liked him a lot. I think he liked me, too. Rob isn't the most punctual person in the world, but he is a great writer. We invited him to work for the New York magazine for a month... and he agreed! So now Rob's coming to New York. I know he's really excited about it. It's going to be great to see him again.

Jenny So, here you are in New York at last.

Rob Yeah, it's great to be here. It's really exciting.

Jenny And how's your hotel?

Rob It's fine. My room is really...nice.

Jenny Do you have a good view from your room?

Rob I can see lots of other buildings.

Jenny Tomorrow I'm going to show you around the office and introduce you to the team. Barbara's looking forward to meeting you. You remember, Barbara, my boss?

Rob Oh...yeah, sorry.

Jenny And then you can start thinking about your blog and the column. Have you got any ideas yet, Rob? ...Rob?

Rob What? Sorry, Jenny.

Jenny You must be really tired.

Rob Yes, I am a bit. What time is it now?

Jenny It's nine o'clock.

Rob Nine o'clock? That's two o'clock in the morning for me.

Jenny Let's finish our drinks. You need to go to bed.

Rob I guess you're right.

Jenny So, I'll see you in the office at eleven in the morning.

Rob At eleven?

Jenny Is that OK?

Rob It's perfect. Thanks, Jenny.

Jenny There's just one thing.

Rob What's that?

Jenny Don't be late.

Rob By the way. It's great to see you again.

Jenny Yeah. It's great to see you, too.

1 34))

Mia It was a really terrible vacation. It was my fault, I mean I wanted to go to Thailand, but I knew before I went that I didn't really want to have a serious relationship with Joe. And the vacation just showed how different we are. He irritated me all the time. He wanted to stay in some really cheap hostels because he thought the hotels were too expensive. I didn't want 5-star luxury, but when I go on vacation I want to be comfortable. The places where Joe wanted to stay were very basic and had very small rooms. There's nothing worse than being in a very small room with someone when you're not getting along very well. Another thing I didn't like was that Joe got very jealous. When you're traveling, part of the fun is talking to other travelers, but he hated it if I talked to other people, especially other men. And then he kept taking photos! Hundreds of them. Every time we saw a monument he said, "Go and stand over there so I can take a photo." I hate being in photos. I just wanted to enjoy the sights. The vacation was all a big mistake. Never go on vacation with a boyfriend if you're not sure about the relationship. It's sure to be a disaster!

Linda Oh, it was a wonderful vacation. I loved every minute! Costa Rica is just a paradise. We did everything – we went on a zipline tour, we did all kinds of fun nature activities, and we had some amazing meals. And you know, everyone says that Costa Rica is expensive, but I didn't think it was – it wasn't an expensive vacation at all. I thought it was pretty reasonable. We all got along very well. I think I'm going to suggest to Isabelle and Laura that we go on vacation together again next year...

1 44))

In May 1968, I came back to Paris. It was a very exciting time. There were a lot of demonstrations and fighting between students and the police. I wasn't really interested in politics – I wasn't a communist or an anarchist. But I loved the atmosphere. All the students were fighting for freedom, for revolution, and the French police were everywhere. On May the 15th, I was with thousands of other young people. We were walking toward the Place de la Bastille. I was tired, so a friend picked me up and I sat on his shoulders. Another boy who was walking next to us was carrying a Vietnamese flag (it was the time of the Vietnam war) and he said to me, "Hey, could you carry the flag for me?" and I said OK. There was so much happening that I didn't notice all the photographers. The next day the photo was on the cover of magazines all over the world. When my grandfather saw it, he immediately ordered me to come to his house. He was furious – really really angry. He said, "That's it! You're a communist! I'm not going to leave you anything. Not a penny!" I walked out of the room, and I never saw him again. Six months later he died, and I didn't get any money from him. Nothing.

Narrator Suddenly, a man ran across the street. He was wearing a dark coat so Hannah didn't see him at first. Quickly she put her foot on the brake. She stopped just in time. She got out of her car and shouted at the man.

Hannah Don't you usually look before you cross the street? I almost hit you. I didn't see you until the last minute.

Jamie Sorry! Hey, Hannah, it's me. It's Jamie.

Hannah Jamie! What are you doing here? I almost killed you!

Hannah But what were you doing on Bridge Street?

I thought you were here, in the cafe, waiting for me.

Jamie I went to the theater to buy these tickets for the Scouting For Girls concert. I know you wanted to go. And it's on the October 15th – next Saturday. Our anniversary.

Hannah Our anniversary?

Jamie Yes. Three months since we first met. We met on Saturday, July 15th. Remember?

Hannah Gosh, Jamie. I can't believe you remember the exact day! What a romantic! It's lucky I didn't hit you on the street...

1 (51))

Sad ending

Narrator Suddenly, a man ran across the street. He was wearing a dark coat so Hannah didn't see him at first. Quickly she put her foot on the brake. Although Hannah tried to stop she couldn't. She hit the man. Hannah panicked. She drove away as fast as she could. When she arrived at the coffee shop, Jamie wasn't there. She called him but his cell phone was turned off. She waited for ten minutes and then she went home. Two hours later a car arrived at Hannah's house. A police officer knocked at the door.

Police officer Good evening, ma'am. Are you Hannah Davis?

Hannah Yes, I am.

Police officer I'd like to speak to you. Can I come in?

Narrator The police officer came in and sat down on the sofa.

Police officer Are you a friend of Jamie Dixon?

Hannah Yes,

Narrator said Hannah.

Police officer Well, I'm afraid I have some bad news for you.

Hannah What? What's happened?

Police officer Jamie had an accident this evening.

Hannah Oh no! What kind of accident?

Police officer He was crossing the street and a car hit him.

Hannah When...When did this happen? And where?

Police officer This evening at 5:25. He was crossing Bridge Street by the theater.

Hannah Oh, no! How is he?

Police officer He's in the hospital. He has a bad injury to his head and two broken legs.

Hannah But is he going to be OK?

Police officer We don't know. He's in intensive care.

Hannah Oh, no. And the driver of the car?

Police officer She didn't stop.

Hannah She?

Police officer Yes, it was a woman in a white car. Somebody saw the car's license plates. You have a white car outside don't you, ma'am? Is your number plate XYZ 348S?

Hannah Yes...yes, it is.

Police officer Can you tell me where you were at 5:25 this evening?

Olivia

Interviewer Excuse me, do you have a minute?

Olivia Yes, sure.

Interviewer Where are you going?

Olivia To Nicaragua.

Interviewer For a vacation?

Olivia No, I'm going to do volunteer work. I'm going to teach English to young children.

Interviewer Where exactly in Nicaragua are you going?

Olivia To a town called Esteli. It's about 93 miles from Managua.

Interviewer How long are you going to be there for?

Olivia I'm going to be in Esteli for six weeks, and after that I'm going to travel around Nicaragua for a month.

Interviewer That sounds amazing.

Olivia Yes, I'm really looking forward to it.

Interviewer Are you feeling nervous at all?

Olivia A little, because I don't speak much Spanish. But they're going to give us a 40-hour language course when we arrive, so I hope that's enough to start with.

Interviewer Well, good luck and have a great time.

Olivia Thanks. I'm sure it's going to be an amazing experience.

Matthew

Interviewer Excuse me, do you have a minute?

Matthew Yeah, OK.

Interviewer Where are you going?

Matthew To Australia.

Interviewer That's a long flight. Are you going to stop on the way?

Matthew No, I'm going direct to Melbourne.

Interviewer Why Melbourne?

Matthew I'm going to work there. I'm a model and we're going to do a photo shoot for a magazine.

Interviewer That sounds exciting. What kind of clothes are you going to model?

Matthew Winter clothes, for next season. It's winter in Australia now, so it's going to be pretty cold. That's why we're going there.

Interviewer Of course, it's their winter. How cold do you think it's going to be?

Matthew I'm not really sure. About 45 to 50 degrees Farhenheit during the day and colder at night, I suppose.

Interviewer Well, have a good trip, and I hope the photos are fabulous!

Matthew Thanks.

Lily

Interviewer Excuse me, do you have a minute?

Lily OK, sure.

Interviewer Where are you going?

Lily To San Francisco.

Interviewer Why are you going there?

Lily I'm going to a conference.

Interviewer So it's a work trip.

Lily Yes. But I'm also going to see an old friend there. Actually, an old boyfriend. Someone I went out with a long time ago.

Interviewer When did you decide to meet up again?

Lily Well, I knew he was working at the University of San Francisco, so when the conference came up about a month ago I got in touch with him on Facebook.

Interviewer Is he going to meet you at the airport?

Lily I don't think so! But who knows?

Interviewer How do you feel about it?

Lily Pretty excited. It's going to be strange meeting again after all these years.

Ben Hi. This is Ben West. Sorry I can't take your call. Please leave a message.

Lily Hi Ben. It's me, Lily. Hope you're OK. I've booked my flight and hotel. I'm coming on Sunday May 2nd – I couldn't get a flight on the first. I'm flying from Boston on JetBlue, and I'm arriving in San Francisco at 2:40 p.m. I'm going back on Saturday the 8th leaving at 12:35 p.m. I'm staying at a hotel near the convention center. It's called the Hotel Nikko or Nekko – I'm not sure how you pronounce it, but it's N-I-K-K-O. I'm sure you know it. I'll call you on Sunday night when I get there. See you soon – I'm really looking forward to seeing you again.

2 (2))

Host Good evening, ladies and gentlemen and welcome to What's the Word? And our first contestants tonight are Martin and Lola. Hello to you both. Are you nervous?

Lola Just a little.

Host Well, just try and relax and play What's the Word? with us. If you're watching the show for the first time, here's how we play the game. As you can see, Martin has a TV screen in front of him and six words are going to appear on the screen.

Martin has two minutes to describe the words to Lola so that she can guess what they are. But he can't use any part of the words on the screen. So, for example, if the word is taxi driver, he can't use the word taxi or driver or drive.

Host Martin, Lola, are you ready?

2 (3))

Host Martin, Lola, are you ready?

Martin/Lola Yes.

Host OK, Martin you have two minutes to describe your six words starting now!

Martin OK, word number 1. It's a person. It's somebody who works in a hospital.

Lola A doctor.

Martin No, no, no...it's the person who helps the doctor and takes care of the patients.

Lola Oh, a [bleep].

Martin That's right. Word number 2. It's a place. It's somewhere where people go when they want to buy things.

Lola A store.

Martin Not exactly. It's bigger and you can buy all kinds of different things there, especially food.

Lola A [bleep]?

Martin Yes, good job. OK, word number 3. It's a thing. It's something that we use for everything nowadays. For the Internet, for talking to people, for taking photos...It's a kind of gadget. Everyone has one.

Lola A [bleep]?

Martin That's it! Word number 4. It's an adjective. It's the opposite of dark.

Lola Light?

Martin It's like light, but you only use it to describe hair.

Lola [bleep]?

Martin Yes! Word number 5. It's an adjective again. Uh...You use it to describe a person who's... Uh, who's quick at learning things.

Lola Intelligent?

Martin No, but it's similar to intelligent. It's the opposite of stupid.

Lola [bleep]!

Martin Yes, right. And word number six, the last one. OK. It's a verb. For example, you do this to the TV.

Lola Watch?

Martin No... It's what you do when you finish watching TV at night.

Lola Uh...go to bed?

Martin No! Come on! You do it to the TV before you go to bed.

Lola Oh, [bleep]?

Martin Yes!

Jenny Well, I think that's everything. What do you think of the office?

Rob It's brilliant. And much bigger than our place in London.

Jenny Oh, here's Barbara. Rob, this is Barbara, the editor of the magazine.

Barbara It's good to finally meet you, Rob.

Rob It's great to be here.

Barbara Is this your first time in New York?

Rob No, I came here when I was eighteen. But only for a few days.

Barbara Well, I hope you get to know New York much better this time!

Jenny Barbara, I'm going to take Rob out for lunch. Would you like to come with us?

Barbara I'd love to, but unfortunately I have a meeting at one. So, I'll see you later. We're meeting at three, I think.

Jenny That's right.

Barbara Have a nice lunch.

Holly Hey, are you Rob Walker?

Rob Yes.

Holly Hi, I'm Holly. Holly Tyler.

Rob Hello, Holly.

Holly We're going to be working together.

Jenny Really?

Holly Didn't Barbara tell you? I'm going to be Rob's photographer!

Jenny Oh, well...We're just going for lunch.

Holly Cool! I can come with you. I mean, I had a sandwich earlier, so I don't need to eat. But Rob and I can talk. Is that OK?

Jenny Sure.

Holly So let's go.

2 11))

Holly So tell me, Rob. What are you going to write about?

Rob Well, to start with, my first impressions of New York. You know, the nightlife, the music, things like that.

Holly Are you planning to do any interviews?

Rob I'd like to. Do you have any suggestions?

Holly Well, I know some great musicians.

Rob Musicians?

Holly You know, guys in bands. And I also have some contacts in the theater and dance.

Rob That would be great.

Holly Maybe we could go to a show, and after you could talk to the actors.

Rob I really like that idea.

Waitress Can I bring you anything else?

Jenny Could we have the check, please?

Waitress Yes, ma'am. Here's your check.

Jenny Thanks. Excuse me. I think there's a mistake. We had two bottles of water, not three.

Waitress You're right. I'm really sorry. It's not my day today! I'll get you a new check.

Jenny Thank you.

Holly We're going to have a fun month, Rob.

Rob Yeah, I think it's going to be fantastic.

Jenny OK, time to go. You have your meeting with Barbara at three.

Rob Oh yeah, right.

Host Teenagers today have a bad reputation. People say that they are lazy and messy and that they do very little to help their parents around the house. But there are some teenagers for whom this description is just not true at all.

It is estimated that there are more than 1.4 million teenagers in the US who have to look after a member of their family, their mother or father or brother or sister. In many cases these young helpers, or "caregivers" as they are called, are doing things like feeding, washing, and taking care of family members, as well as doing their school work.

2 23))

Host I'd like to welcome to the program two of these teenagers, Alice and Daniel, who are 17 years old, and who both take care of family members. Hello, Alice, hello Daniel.

Alice / Daniel Hi.

Host Who do you take care of?

Alice I take care of my mom. She has M.E. – it's a disease – it means that she feels tired all the time and she can't walk very well. And I also take care of my younger brother and sister. He's six and she's four.

Daniel I take care of my mom, too. She had a bad car accident seven years ago and she can't walk. I also take care of my little sister.

Host You both do a lot of housework. What exactly do you do?

Alice On a normal day, I get up early and I clean the house and I do the ironing. After school I sometimes take my mom to the store in her wheelchair. In the evening my dad makes the dinner – I'm not very good at cooking! But I make sure my brother and sister eat their dinner and then I put them to bed.

Daniel My day's pretty similar. I clean the house and iron but I also do the cooking and the grocery shopping. My dad left home four years ago, so we're on our own. I take my sister to school and make sure that my mom is OK. I have to give her massages every evening.

Host How do you feel about the way you live?

Alice I don't really mind taking care of my mom. She's sick and she needs my help. But sometimes I feel a little sad when I can't go out because there are things to do around the house. And I sometimes get angry with my school friends. They don't really understand the problems I have at home. All they think about is clothes, boys, and going out.

Daniel I like what I do because I'm helping my mom, and I'm helping my sister at the same time. Of course it's true that I can't go out much because I need to spend most of my time at home. I sometimes go out with my friends, but I don't like leaving my mom by herself. I always make sure that I have my cell phone. If my mom needs anything, she calls me and I go back home. It's not a problem for me. It's just part of my life.

Host You're both doing a great job. Thanks very much for coming on the program.

1 Interviewer Have you ever bought something that you've never worn?

A Yes. Hasn't everyone? I remember some pants I bought that I never wore.

Interviewer What was the problem with them?

A They were very tight, black leather pants that I bought from a second-hand store when I was about 20 years old. I remember when I was in the fitting room I thought they looked amazing. I thought I looked like Jim Morrison from the Doors. But when I got home, in the cold light of day, I realized that I looked more like one of the women from Abba! That's why I never wore them.

2 Interviewer Have you ever bought something that you've never worn?

A Yes, a karate uniform. I decided that I wanted to do karate, and I signed up for lessons and bought the uniform and the orange belt but then I changed my mind and decided not to take the lessons.

Interviewer Why not?

A I was worried that someone would knock my teeth out.

Interviewer Do you still have the uniform?

A No, I sold it on eBay.

3 Interviewer Have you ever bought something that you've never worn?

A Sadly it happens to me a lot because I hate clothes shopping, and I never try things on. For example, I have a shirt in my closet now that I've never worn.

Interviewer Why not?

A Well, I bought it in a hurry a few months ago, and then I put it away in my closet. A few weeks later, I took it out and looked at it and I thought "Why did I buy this?" It's awful – pink and purple stripes. And of course I didn't have the receipt, so I couldn't take it back.

4 Interviewer Have you ever bought something that you've never worn?

A A lot of things, actually. The last one was a brown leather coat.

Interviewer What was wrong with it?

A Well, I bought it online from a website that has cheap deals, but when it arrived, it looked completely different from what it looked like on the computer screen, and I decided I didn't like it. So it's in my closet. I'm sure I'm never going to wear it, but maybe I'll give it to someone as a present.

Host Last Friday Steve, a businessman from Seattle, was looking forward to a relaxing two days in the mountains. He and his wife had arranged a skiing weekend in a luxury hotel. But the weekend didn't work out exactly as they had planned. Steve worked until late on Friday evening. His office was on the 12th floor. When he finished at 8 o'clock, he locked his office and got into the elevator ... and he didn't get out again until Monday morning!

Steve I pressed the button for the first floor, and the elevator started going down, but then it stopped. I pressed the button again, but nothing happened. I pressed the alarm and shouted, but nobody heard me. Most people had already gone home. I tried to call my wife, but my cell phone didn't work in the elevator. I couldn't do anything. I just sat on the floor and hoped maybe somebody would realize what had happened. But on Saturday and Sunday, I knew nobody would be there. I slept most of the time to forget how hungry I was.

Host Meanwhile Steve's wife, Kate, was waiting for her husband to come home.

Kate I was very worried when he didn't come home on Friday evening, and I couldn't understand why his cell phone wasn't working. I called the police, and they looked for him, but they couldn't find him anywhere. I thought maybe he was with another woman.

Host So Steve was in the elevator the whole weekend from Friday evening until Monday morning. At eight o'clock, when the office workers arrived, they called the emergency number, and somebody came and repaired the elevator.

Steve I was very happy to get out. I hadn't eaten since Friday afternoon, and I was very hungry. It's lucky that I am not claustrophobic because the elevator was very small. The first thing I did was to call my wife to say that I was OK.

Host Steve will soon be the fittest man in his office – from now on he's going to take the stairs every day – even though it's 12 floors.

Interviewer Today we talk to Laurel Reece, who's writing a book about how to live more slowly. She's going to give us five useful tips.

Laurel My first tip is something that is very simple to say, but more difficult to do in practice. Whatever you're doing, just try to slow down and enjoy it. If you're walking somewhere, try to walk more slowly; if you are driving, make yourself drive more slowly. It doesn't matter what you are doing, cooking, taking a shower, exercising in the gym, just slow down and really enjoy the moment. We all try to do too many things that we just don't have time for. So my second tip is make a list of the three things that are most important for you – your priorities in life. Then when you've made your list make sure that you spend time doing those things. Imagine for example that your three things are your family, reading, and playing sports. Then make sure that you spend enough time with your family, that you have space in your life for reading, and that you have time to play sports. And forget about trying to do other things that you don't have time for.

Tip number three is don't try to do two things at the same time. The worst thing you can do is multitask. So for example, don't read your email while you are talking to a friend on the phone. If you do that, you aren't really focusing on your email or your friend and you aren't going to feel very relaxed either.

Tip number four is very simple: once a day, every day, sit down and do nothing for half an hour. For example, go to a cafe and sit outside, or go to a park and sit on a bench. Turn off your phone so that nobody can contact you, and then just sit and watch the world go by. This will really help you to slow down.

OK. My fifth and final tip. One of the most relaxing things you can do is to be near water or even better, to be on water. So if you live near a lake or river, go and sit by the river, or go boating.

If you live near the ocean, go and sit on the beach. Relax and listen to the sound of the wind and the water. You will feel your body and mind slowing down as the minutes go past.

2 45))

First, I did the photo test. I asked an office worker who was eating his sandwich to take a photo of me. He was really friendly and said, "Of course I'll take your picture." When I asked him to take more photos, he said, "Sure! No problem!" When he gave me my camera back, he said, "Have a nice day!"

Next, it was the shopping test. I went shopping near Times Square, and I bought an "I love New York" T-shirt and some drinks from two different people. I gave them too much money, but they both gave me the exact change back.

Finally, it was time for the accident test. For this test, I went to Central Park, and I fell down on the ground. I only had to wait about 30 seconds before a man came to help me. "Is this your camera?" he said. "I think it's broken."

2 51))

Host Next in our list of things that you thought were bad for you is chocolate. Jane, our food expert, is going to tell us why actually it can be good for us.

Jane Well, there have been a lot of studies recently about chocolate. Remember, chocolate is something that we've been eating for hundreds of years – it's not a modern invention. And the studies show that chocolate, like grape juice, contains antioxidants. In fact, chocolate has more antioxidants than grape juice. These antioxidants can protect us against illnesses like heart disease.

Host Really?

Jane Yes, but, and this is very important, all the good antioxidants are only in dark chocolate. So don't eat milk chocolate or white chocolate – they aren't healthy at all. And of course, you also need to remember that although dark chocolate is good for you, it contains a lot of calories, so if you're worried about your weight, don't eat too much. One or two pieces a day is enough.

Host Great news for me because I love chocolate!

And now to Tony, our TV journalist. Tony, newspaper articles are always telling us about studies that say that we watch too much TV, that we spend too much time sitting in front of the TV and that as a result, we don't exercise enough. They also say that watching TV makes us stupid. Is this all true Tony?

Tony Well, it's almost certainly true that we watch too much television, but it probably isn't true that watching TV makes us stupid. I've just finished reading a book by a science writer, Steven Johnson, called Everything Bad Is Good for You. One thing he says in his book is that modern TV series like The Sopranos or House or Mad Men are more intellectually stimulating than TV series were 20 years ago. He says that these shows are complicated and very smart and that they help to make us more intelligent.

Host Well, I can believe that, but what about reality shows that are so popular on TV. I can't believe that these are good for us.

Tony Well, Steven Johnson says that we can even learn something from reality shows – he says this kind of TV show can teach us about group psychology – about how people behave when they're in a group.

Host Well, thank you, Tony and Jane. So now you know what to do this evening. You can sit down in front of the TV with a box of dark chocolates...

2 55))

Holly Hey, Rob, come on. Keep up.

Rob Sorry. I'm a bit tired this morning.

Holly You aren't exactly in good shape, are you?

Rob I know, I know. I think I'm eating too much.

Holly Then eat less!

Rob It isn't easy. I eat out all the time. And the portions in American restaurants are enormous.

Holly You don't do enough exercise.

Rob I walk a lot.

Holly Walking isn't enough, Rob. Do you do anything to keep fit?

Rob I cycle when I'm in London...

Holly So why don't you get a bike here?

Rob I'm only here for another three weeks.

Anyway, my hotel's near the office. I don't need a bike.

Holly You know, Jennifer goes running all the time. Before and after work. But I just think that running is just so boring. I mean, where's the fun?

Rob Yeah, I'm not very keen on running.

Holly So why don't you play basketball with me and my friends?

Rob OK. That's a great idea! But I don't have any trainers.

Holly Trainers? Sneakers! You can buy some.

Rob Is there a sports shop near here?

Holly Sure, there's one across the street.

2 59))

Rob Hi, Jenny.

Jenny Oh, hi.

Rob Have you had a good day?

Jenny Oh, you know. Meetings! What about you?

Rob It was great. I went to Brooklyn and met some really interesting people.

Jenny And you had time to go shopping, too.

Rob What? Oh yeah. I've just bought these.

Jenny What are they?

Rob A pair of trainers – uh, sneakers.

Jenny Nice. Why did you buy sneakers?

Rob I think I need to get a bit fitter.

Jenny Oh, I'm impressed. You know, I go running every morning in Central Park.

Rob Do you?

Jenny It's so beautiful early in the morning. Why don't you come with me?

Rob Uh... sure. Why not?

Jenny Great! I'll come by your hotel tomorrow morning.

Rob OK. What time?

Jenny Six forty-five?

Rob Six...?

Jenny Forty-five.

Rob Can we make it a bit later? Say, seven forty-five?

Jenny That's too late, Rob. Let's make it seven fifteen.

Rob OK.

Jenny Excellent. See you later.

Rob Great.

Holly Basketball and running, Rob. You must have a lot of energy.

Rob Uh... yeah.

Host Today's topic is "positive thinking." We all know that people who are positive enjoy life more than people who are negative and pessimistic. But scientific studies show that positive people are also healthier. They get better more quickly when they are sick, and they live longer. A recent study has shown that people who are optimistic and think positively live, on average, nine years longer than pessimistic people. So, let's hear what you the listeners think. Do you have any ideas to help us be more positive in our lives?

3 9))

Host Our first caller this evening is Andy. Hi Andy. What's your tip for being positive?

Andy Hello. Well, I think it's very important to live in the present and not in the past. Don't think about mistakes you made in the past. You can't change the past. The important thing is to think about how you can do things better now and in the future.

Host Thank you, Andy. And now we have another caller. What's your name, please?

Julie Hi, My name's Julie. My tip is think positive thoughts, not negative ones. We all have negative thoughts sometimes, but when we start having them, we need to stop and try to change them into positive ones. Like, if you have an exam tomorrow and you start thinking "I'm sure I'll fail," then you'll fail the exam. So you need to change that negative thought to a positive thought. Just think to yourself "I'll pass." I do this and it usually works.

Host Thank you, Julie. And our next caller is Marco. Hi, Marco.

Marco Hi. My tip is don't spend a lot of time reading the papers or watching the news on TV. It's always bad news and it just makes you feel depressed. Read a book or listen to your favorite music instead.

Host Thanks, Marco. And our next caller is Miriam. Miriam?

Miriam Hi.

Host Hi, Miriam. What's your tip?

Miriam My tip is every week make a list of all the good things that happened to you. Then keep the list with you, in your bag or in a pocket, and if you're feeling a little sad or depressed, just take it out and read it. It'll make you feel better.

Host Thanks, Miriam. And our last call is from Michael. Hi, Michael. We're listening.

Michael Hi. My tip is to try to use positive language when you speak to other people. You know, if your friend has a problem, don't say "I'm sorry" or "Oh, poor you," say something positive like "Don't worry! Everything will be OK." That way you'll make the other person think more positively about his or her problem.

Host Thank you, Michael. Well, that's all we have time for. A big thank you to all our callers. Until next week – goodbye.

Narrator Earlier this year, ten years after Steve sent the letter, some workers were renovating the living room in Carmen's mother's house. When they took out the fireplace they found Steve's letter, and gave it to Carmen's sister, and she sent the letter to Carmen. Carmen was now 42, and she was still single.

Carmen When I got the letter I didn't call Steve right away because I was so nervous. I kept picking up the phone and putting it down again. I almost didn't call him at all. But I knew that I had to make the call.

Narrator Carmen finally made the call and Steve answered the phone. He was also now 42 and also single.

Steve I couldn't believe it when she called. I just moved into a new house, but luckily I kept my old phone number.

Narrator Steve and Carmen arranged to meet a few days later.

Steve When we met it was like a movie. We ran across the airport and into each other's arms. Within 30 seconds of seeing each other again we were kissing. We fell in love all over again.

Narrator Last week the couple got married, 17 years after they first met.

Carmen I never got married in all those years, but now I have married the man I always loved.

Narrator So Steve and Carmen are together at last. But will they keep their promises?

Patient So what does it mean, doctor?

Dr. Well, first the party. A party is a group of people. This means that you're going to meet a lot of people. I think you're going to be very busy.

Patient At work?

Dr. Yes, at work... you work in an office, I think?

Patient Yes, that's right.

Dr. I think the party means you are going to have a lot of meetings.

Patient What about the garden and the flowers? Do they mean anything?

Dr. Yes. Flowers are a positive symbol. So the flowers mean that you are feeling positive about the future. So maybe you already knew about this possible promotion?

Patient No, I didn't. But it's true, I am very happy at work, and I feel very positive about my future. That's not where my problems are. My problems are with my love life. Does my dream tell you anything about that?

Dr. Mm, yes it does. You're single, aren't you?

Patient Yes, well, divorced.

Dr. Because the violin music tells me you want some romance in your life – you're looking for a partner perhaps?

Patient Yes, yes, I am. In fact I met a woman last month – I really like her... I think I'm in love with her. I'm meeting her tonight.

Dr. In your dream you saw an owl in a tree.

Patient Yes, an owl... a big owl.

Dr. The owl represents an older person. I think you'll need to ask this older person for help. Maybe this "older person" is me? Maybe you need my help?

Patient Well, yes, what I really want to know is does this person, this woman... love me?

3 18))

Patient Well, yes, what I really want to know is does this person, this woman... love me?

Dr. You remember the end of your dream? You were feeling cold?

Patient Yes, my feet were very cold.

Dr. Well, I think perhaps you already know the answer to your question.

Patient You mean she doesn't love me.

Dr. No, I don't think so. I think you will need to find another woman. I'm sorry. Perhaps you can find someone on the Internet? I have heard of a very good website...

3 23))

Nico Hi, Emily. Sorry I'm late. I was watching the big game.

Emily Well, come on in. Mom, this is Nico. Nico, this is my mom.

Nico Oh... hello.

Mom Nice to meet you, Nico.

Emily And this is my Dad.

Dad Hello, Nico.

Nico Hello.

Dad Come on into the living room.

Dad Would you like a drink, Nico? Orange juice, soda?

Nico Oh, thanks, John. I'll have a soda, please.

Mom You're a vegetarian, aren't you, Nico?

Nico Yes, I am. Personally I think eating animals is totally wrong.

Mom Ahem, well, this is vegetable lasagna. I hope you like it. Emily's Dad made it.

Dad Any more lasagna, Nico?

Nico Oh, uh, no thanks. I'm not very hungry.

Emily The lasagna is delicious, Dad.

Mom Yes, it is.

Dad Thank you.

Emily I'll do the dishes, Mom.

Dad No, I'll do them.

Nico Uh, where's the bathroom?

Nico Did you watch the big game this evening, John? The Lakers and the Celtics. It was exciting.

Dad No, I didn't watch it. I don't like basketball at all. In fact, I hate it.

Nico Oh.

Mom So...what are you going to do when you finish college, Nico?

Nico Uh, I don't know.

Dad What are you studying in college?

Nico Sociology.

Dad Why did you choose sociology?

Nico Because I thought it was easy.

Mom Is it interesting?

Nico It's OK. Uh... What was Emily like as a little girl, Marion? Do you have any photos of her?

Mom Photos of Emily? Yes, we have thousands of photos. She was the cutest little girl, wasn't she John?

Dad Yes, she was. A beautiful little girl.

Nico Can I see some?

Emily Oh, no, please.

Mom John, can you bring the photo albums?

Mom Look, and this is one when she was three years old.

Dad And this is when we went to Disney World. That's Emily with Mickey and Minnie Mouse.

Nico Ah! She was so sweet.

Dad Would you like another soda, Nico?

Nico Yes, please, John.

Interviewer Good morning and welcome. On today's program we're going to talk about singing. In the studio, we have Franco, the director of a singing school in Miami, and Molly, a student at Franco's school. Good morning to both of you.

Franco / Molly Good morning.

Interviewer First, Franco, can you tell us, why is it a good idea for people to learn to sing?

Franco First, because singing makes you feel good. And secondly, because singing is very good for your health.

Interviewer Really? In what way?

Franco Well, when you learn to sing you need to learn to breathe correctly. That's very important. And you also learn to stand and sit correctly. As a result, people who sing are often in better shape and healthier than people who don't.

Interviewer Are your classes only for professional singers?

Franco No, not at all. They're for everybody. You don't need to have any experience with singing. And you don't need to be able to read music.

Interviewer So how do your students learn to sing?

Franco They learn by listening and repeating. Singing well is really 95% listening.

Interviewer OK. Molly, tell us about the class. How long did it last?

Molly Only one day. From ten in the morning to six in the evening.

Interviewer Could you already sing well before you started?

Molly No, not well. I've always liked singing. But I can't read music, and I never thought I sang very well.

Interviewer So what happened during the class?

Molly Well, first we did a lot of listening and breathing exercises, and we learned some other interesting techniques.

Interviewer What sorts of things?

Molly Well, for example we learned that it's easier to sing high notes if you sing with a surprised look on your face!

Interviewer Oh, really? Could you show us?

Molly Well, I'll try.

Interviewer For those of you at home, I can promise you that Molly looked very surprised. Were you happy with your progress?

Molly Absolutely. At the end of the day, we were singing in almost perfect harmony. It was amazing. In just one day, we really were much better.

Interviewer Could you two give us a little demonstration?

Franco / Molly Oh, OK...

Journalist I arrived the airport in San Juan, Puerto Rico where I met Nilda. Hola Soy Max.

Nilda Encantada. Soy Nilda.

Journalist Nilda took me to my hotel, and that evening we went to eat, and it was time for my first test. I had to order a sandwich and a drink in a cafe and then ask for the check. I sat down at a table, and I tried to order a soda and a chicken sandwich. Por favor, una refresca y un emparedado de pollo.

Waiter En seguida.

Journalist Terrific! The waiter understood me the first time. My pronunciation wasn't perfect, but I got my soda and my sandwich. I really enjoyed it. But then the more difficult part. Asking for the check... ¿Cuánto es?

Waiter Seis noventa.

Journalist ¿Cómo?

Waiter Seis noventa.

Journalist Six ninety. I understood! Nilda gave me eight points for the test. I was very happy with that. Next, we went out on the street. Test number two was asking for directions and understanding them. We were on a narrow street, and I had to stop someone and ask him or her for the nearest drugstore, Una farmacia. I stopped a woman. At first, I didn't understand anything she said!

Passer-by Siga todo derecho y tome la segunda calle alla izquierda. Hay una farmacia en esa calle.

Journalist I asked the woman to speak more slowly.

Passer-by Todo derecho y tome la segunda calle a la izquierda IZQUIERDA.

Journalist I got it this time, I think. The second street on the left. I followed the directions and guess what? There was a drugstore there! Seven points from Nilda.

Test number three. I wasn't looking forward to this one. I had to take a taxi to a historical place in San Juan. Nilda wrote down the name of the place on a piece of paper. It was the name of an old fort near the ocean. We stopped a taxi.

Journalist El Morro, por favor.

Taxi driver ¿Qué? ¿Adónde?

Journalist He didn't understand me. I tried again but he still didn't understand. I was desperate so I said "fort, old, water."

Taxi driver JAh! El Morro.

Journalist Finally! Nilda only gave me five points because I ended up using English. Still, at least I made the taxi driver understand where I wanted to go. And so to the final test. I had to leave a message in Spanish on somebody's voicemail. I had to give my name, spell it, and ask the person to call me back. Nilda gave me the number (it was one of her friends named Lourdes) and I dialed. I was feeling a little nervous at this point, because talking on the phone in a foreign language is never easy.

Lourdes Deje su mensaje después de la señal.

Journalist Uh. Buenas noches. Soy Max. Max. M-A-X. Uh... Por favor... llamaré esta noche... Oh, yes... a las 8:30, Uh Gracias. Well, my grammar wasn't correct, but I left the message. Half an hour later, at eight thirty, Lourdes called me. Success! Nilda gave me eight points. That was the end of my four tests. Nilda was happy with me. My final score was seven. I was very happy with that. So how much can you learn in a month? Well, of course you can't learn Spanish in a month, but you can learn enough to survive if you are on vacation or on a trip. Now I want to go back to Washington, D.C., and try and learn some more. ¡Adiós!

Jenny Are you OK?
Rob Me? Never better.
Jenny It's beautiful here, isn't it? I think this is my favorite place in New York.
Rob Yeah, it's great.
Jenny So how's it all going? Are you happy you came?
Rob To Central Park? At seven fifteen in the morning?
Jenny To New York, Rob.
Rob Yeah. Of course I'm happy. It's fantastic.
Jenny Really? You aren't just saying that.
Rob No, I mean it.
Jenny You need to get in shape, Rob.
Rob I know. I am a bit tired of eating out all the time. It isn't good for my figure.
Jenny It's the restaurants you go to! Why don't you come over to my place after work? I could make you something a little healthier.
Rob I'd really like that. Thanks.
Jenny So, how do you feel now? Are you ready to go again?
Rob Oh yes! I'm ready for anything.
Jenny Are you sure you're OK?
Rob Absolutely.
Jenny OK. We'll only go around two more times.
Rob Two? Excellent!

Jenny Oh... right.
Rob What about you?
Jenny What about me?
Rob You know... relationships?
Jenny Oh, I've been too busy recently to think about relationships. Getting this job at the magazine was a really big thing for me. I guess that's taken up all my time and energy.
Rob But that isn't very good for you. Only thinking about work, I mean.
Jenny Why didn't you tell me you weren't feeling well this morning? We didn't have to go for a run.
Rob I wanted to go. It was nice.
Jenny Well, I'm glad you're feeling better. Would you like another coffee?
Rob No, thanks. I think I should get back to the hotel now, I've got a really busy day tomorrow. Do you have a telephone number for a taxi?
Jenny Yeah...but it's much easier to get a cab on the street.
Rob Oh, OK, then.
Jenny I'll see you in the morning, if you're feeling OK.
Rob Oh, I'm sure I'll be fine. Thanks again for a great evening.
Jenny Any time.
Rob Goodnight.

Host Welcome to this morning's edition of What's the problem? Today, we're talking about friends, so if you have a problem with one of your friends, and you'd like our psychologist Catherine to give you some advice, just call us at 1-800-555-5500. Our first caller today is Kevin from Atlanta. Hello, Kevin.
Kevin Hi.
Host What's the problem?
Kevin Yes. My problem is with my best friend, Alan. Well, the thing is, he's always flirting with my girlfriend.
Host Your best friend flirts with your girlfriend?

Kevin Yes, when the three of us are together he always says things to my girlfriend like, "Wow! You look amazing today" or "I love your dress, Suzanne," things like that. And when we're at a party, he always asks her to dance.

Host Do you think he's in love with your girlfriend?
Kevin I don't know, but I'm getting really stressed about it. What can I do?

3 51))

Host Well, let's see if our expert can help. Catherine?
Catherine Hello, Kevin. Have you talked to your girlfriend about this?
Kevin No, I haven't. I don't want Suzanne to think I'm jealous.
Catherine Well, first I think you should talk to her. Ask her how she feels and what she thinks of Alan's behavior. Maybe she thinks it's fine, and they are just good friends. That it's just his personality. If that's what she thinks, then I think you should accept it and relax.
Kevin What should I do if she also finds it uh, difficult, uh, uncomfortable?
Catherine Then I think you should talk to Alan. Tell him that he's a good friend, but that you and Suzanne have problems with the way he behaves. I'm sure he'll stop doing it. He's probably never thought it was a problem.
Kevin OK, thanks. I'll talk to Suzanne tonight.

3 52))

Host And our next caller is Miranda from Brooklyn. Hi, Miranda.
Miranda Hi.
Host And what's your problem?
Miranda My problem is with my husband's ex wife. They divorced five years ago, before I met him. But she still calls him at least once a week to chat, and if she has a problem in her apartment or with her car, she always calls him and asks him to come and help her.
Host Does your husband have children with his ex-wife?
Miranda No, they don't have any children. That's why I think she should stay out of our lives.
Host Catherine, over to you. What do you think Miranda should do?

3 53))

Catherine Hi, Miranda. Well, first, have you spoken to your husband about this?
Miranda Yes, I have. He thinks I'm being difficult. He feels sorry for his ex – she's on her own, and she doesn't have a partner.
Catherine OK. Miranda, do you have any male friends, men who are just good friends?
Miranda Yes, I have a friend named Bill. We've been friends since I was a teenager.
Catherine That's perfect. My advice is this: When your husband's ex-wife calls and asks him to go and see her, call Bill and arrange to meet and have dinner or go to the movies. Every time your husband meets his ex or has a long phone call, then you meet Bill or have a long phone call. He'll soon see what's happening, and he'll stop seeing his ex.

Miranda I think that's a great idea. Thank you, Catherine.

Host And to finish our program today, the incredible story of a Swedish couple who went on vacation and survived no fewer than seven natural disasters! Stefan and Erika Svanström started their four-month trip last December. They were traveling with their young baby daughter. First, they flew from Stockholm to Munich. But when they arrived in Munich, they couldn't get their connecting flight to Thailand because there was a terrible blizzard in south Germany – the worst snowstorm in 100 years! They had to wait at the airport for 24 hours. Mrs. Svanström said:

Mrs. Svanström "We just thought things will get better."

Host When they finally got to Thailand, they had a relaxing few weeks. But that was the last time they could really relax. From Thailand they flew to the island of Bali in Indonesia, a popular vacation destination. When they arrived in Bali they were expecting blue skies and sun, but what they got were terrible monsoon rains – the worst monsoons for many years. Mrs. Svanström said:

Mrs. Svanström "Now we were thinking, what will happen next?"

Host They decided not to stay in Bali, but to go to Australia. They flew to Perth in western Australia, but hours after they arrived, Perth suffered terrible forest fires, and the streets were full of smoke. They traveled north to Cairns, and arrived just in time for Cyclone Yasi – one of the worst cyclones ever to hit the city. They had to leave their hotel and spend 24 hours in a shopping center with 2,500 other people.

Could things get any worse? Yes, they could. The Svanström family left Cairns and traveled south to Brisbane to visit friends, but the city was suffering from the worst floods in its history. So they left Brisbane and booked airline tickets to Christchurch in New Zealand. But just before their plane left Brisbane, some friends called them to say that Christchurch had been hit by an earthquake and a large part of the city was destroyed. Their plane landed in another city, Auckland. They traveled around New Zealand for a while, and then they flew to Japan. On March 11th, they were having lunch in a restaurant in Tokyo when suddenly everything began to shake. It was an earthquake: nine on the Richter scale and one of the worst that ever hit Japan. And after the earthquake came a devastating tsunami. Fortunately, Mr. and Mrs. Svanström and their child were not hurt. They traveled from Japan to China for the last part of their vacation. Luckily, they didn't have any more natural disasters, and they arrived safely home in Stockholm on March 29th. Mr. Svanström said:

Mr. Svanström "We have learned that in life you should always expect the worst, but hope for the best. Also, you need to be prepared for anything."

Part 3

Hartley "Héloïse will go,"

Reader said Hartley angrily.

Hartley "I haven't had one day without problems since I met her. You are right, Vivienne. Héloïse must go before I can take you home. But she will go. I have decided..."

Vivienne "Then,"

Reader said Vivienne,

Vivienne "my answer is yes. I will be yours."

Reader She looked into his eyes and Hartley could hardly believe his luck.

Hartley "Promise me,"

Reader he said.

Vivienne "I promise,"

Reader repeated Vivienne, softly. At the door he turned and looked at her happily,

Hartley "I will come for you tomorrow,"

Reader he said.

Vivienne "Tomorrow,"

Reader she repeated with a smile. An hour and forty minutes later Hartley stepped off the train when it stopped in the suburbs, and walked to his house. As he walked toward the door a woman ran to him. She had black hair and was wearing a long white dress. They kissed, and walked into the house.

Part 4

Hartley's wife "My mother is here,"

Reader the woman said.

Hartley's wife "But she's leaving in half an hour.
She came to have dinner, but there's nothing to eat."

Hartley "I have something to tell you,"

Reader said Hartley. He whispered something in her ear. His wife screamed. Her mother came running into the hall. The woman screamed again, but it was a happy scream – the sound of a woman whose husband loved her.

Hartley's wife "Oh, mother!"

Reader she cried,

Hartley's wife "What do you think? Vivienne is coming to be our cook! She is the cook that was with the Montgomery's. She's going to be ours! And now, dear,"

Reader she told her husband,

Hartley's wife "you must go to the kitchen and tell Héloïse to leave. She has been drunk again all day."

1 Interviewer Do you have any phobias?

A Yes, I'm terrified of bats.

Interviewer Really? How long have you had the phobia?

A I've had it for about forty years! Since I was 12 years old. At my school we had a swimming pool, and the changing rooms were in an old building near the pool. On the first day at school our teacher told us that there were bats in there and that we shouldn't move around too much because they might start flying around and get into our hair. She also said we shouldn't turn the lights on because this would wake up the bats. We had to change as quickly and quietly as possible.

Interviewer Did a bat ever fly into your hair?

A No, nothing ever happened, but I was terrified just at the thought of it.

Interviewer Does it affect your life at all?

A Yes, I often feel very nervous or start to panic if I'm outside when it's beginning to get dark, which is when bats appear. If I'm sitting in my yard in the evening, I always have a tennis racket, so if a bat flies near me, I can protect myself. And I can't watch a TV documentary about bats, or even look at them in photos.

2 Interviewer Do you have any phobias?

B Yes, I get very bad claustrophobia.

Interviewer How long have you had the phobia?

B It just started one morning about ten years ago. I was going to work on the train, and it was very crowded. I started thinking that if there were an accident, I'd never get out. I had a panic attack, and I sort of felt my heart beating very quickly. I had to get off the train.

Interviewer How does your phobia affect your life?

B Well, I can't travel on crowded trains. I never ever travel on the subway because my worst nightmare would be if the train stopped in the tunnel. I also try to avoid elevators. What else? Oh, yes, if I'm flying, I have to have an aisle seat. I can't sit by the window.

3 Interviewer Do you have any phobias?

C Yes, I have a pretty unusual phobia. I'm scared of clowns.

Interviewer Clowns, really? How long have you had it?

C I've had it for a long time. Since I was a child.

Interviewer How did it start?

C Well, I remember I went on a school trip to the circus when I was six or seven years old and there were clowns. I thought they were sort of stupid but I wasn't really afraid of them. Then I went to a birthday party and there were clowns and they were showing us how to paint our faces, and I found I didn't like being near them.

At first I just didn't like them, but over the years my feelings have changed to fear.

Interviewer Does your phobia affect your life at all?

C Not really because luckily I don't see clowns very often!

Good evening and welcome to Top Sounds, our weekly music program, and tonight the focus is on the Latin music star Enrique Iglesias. As I'm sure you all know, Enrique Iglesias is the son of the Spanish singer Julio Iglesias, who is one of the most successful singing artists of all time.

Enrique was born in Madrid, Spain in 1975. His mother is Isabel Preysler, a journalist and TV host from the Philippines. When he was three years old his parents got divorced and later he moved to Miami to live with his father. He started studying business at the University of Miami, but he left after a year because he wanted to become a musician. He didn't want his father to know about his music career, and he didn't want to use his famous last name to be successful. So when he sent some of his songs to several record companies, he used the name Enrique Martinez, and he eventually got a contract with a Mexican record company.

He made his first album, called Enrique Iglesias in 1995, which won him a Grammy. He then made two more albums, and he had many hits on the Latin music charts. At first Enrique sang mainly in Spanish but later he began to sing more and more in English too.

His fourth album, Escape in 2001, was his biggest commercial success and included the singles Escape and Hero, sung in English, which became hits all over the world and made Enrique an international star. Since then he has made five other albums and has also had a few acting parts in movies and TV shows. Also in 2001, he began dating the Russian tennis player, Ana Kournikova, but they kept their relationship very private. Today Enrique Iglesias is recognized as one of the most popular artists in Latin America. He has sold 100 million albums, which makes him one of the best selling artists of all time.

Rob OK.

Jenny But the night is still young. Maybe you have time to meet up with Holly again.

Rob Holly?

Jenny I'm sorry. I didn't mean to say that.

Rob I don't care about Holly.

Jenny Forget it, Rob. Now if you don't mind, I'd like to go home.

Rob Listen to me, Jenny. Holly is just a colleague.

Jenny I said forget it. It's OK.

Rob No, it isn't OK. Look, I know I'm always late. And I know the underground is the subway. But that's not the point! I'm not interested in Holly. I came to New York because of you. The only person I'm interested in is you!

4 37))

Host Good afternoon, and welcome to another edition of Science Today. On today's program we are going to hear about women inventors. When we think of famous inventors we usually think of men, people like Alexander Graham Bell, Guglielmo Marconi, Thomas Edison. But, as Sally will tell us, many of the things that make our lives easier today were invented by women.

Sally That's absolutely right. Let's take the dishwasher for example. This was invented by a woman named Josephine Cochrane in 1886. She was a rich American who gave a lot of dinner parties. But she was annoyed that her servants used to break plates and glasses when they were washing the dishes after a party. So, Josephine decided to try and invent a machine that could wash a lot of plates and glasses safely. Apparently she said: "If nobody else is going to invent a dishwasher, then I will!" She designed the machine and then she found a company to make it. At first only hotels and restaurants bought Josephine's new machine but today the dishwasher is used by millions of people all over the world.

The car was invented by a man, but it was a woman, Mary Anderson, who in 1903 solved one of the biggest problems of driving. Until her invention it was impossible for drivers to see where they were going when it was raining or snowing. They had to open their window. The name of Mary's invention? Windshield wipers. An invention that definitely improved the lives of millions of people was disposable diapers. They were invented by a woman named Marion Donovan. Her father and uncle were inventors, and when she had young children, she sat down and invented a diaper that you could use and then throw away. Anybody who has a small baby will know what a big difference disposable diapers make to our lives. But although she invented it in 1950, it wasn't until 1961 that an American company bought Marion's idea. Today, more than 55 million disposable diapers are used every day and Marion's invention has been made more eco-friendly. Now you can buy biodegradable diapers! And now to our next inventor. In 1956, Bette Nesmith Graham was working as a secretary. Like all secretaries at that time she used to get very frustrated and angry when she made typing mistakes. In those days if you made a mistake, you had to get a new sheet of paper and start again from the beginning. Then she had a brilliant idea, which was to use a white liquid to paint over mistakes. Her invention is called white-out today. Mrs. Graham was a divorced mother and her invention made her a very rich woman. Her son, Mike Nesmith, became a famous pop star – he was a member of the American group, The Monkees.

And finally... police officers, soldiers, and politicians all over the world are protected by something that was invented by a woman. In 1966 Stephanie Kwolek invented kevlar, a special material that was very light but incredibly strong, much stronger than metal. This material is used to make bullet-proof vests. Stephanie's invention has probably saved thousands of lives.

Host Thank you very much, Sally. So, if you thought that everything was invented by men, think again.

1 Host Did you like school?

A No, definitely not.

Host Why?

A I didn't like most of my classes – I was always bored, and I hated exams. And the worst thing of all was PE. Where I went to school we used to play rugby. Ugh. It was torture.

2 Host Did you like school?

B I loved elementary school, but I didn't really like high school.

Host Why not?

B Well, my high school was very big and it was sort of cold and impersonal. It took me a very long time before I felt at home there. And I'm not really very academic, but the school was. We used to get loads of homework which I hated.

3 Host Did you like school?

C Uh, yes, I did.

Host Why?

C I was very curious about everything when I was little, so I liked school because I learned about new things. And of course, I used to see my friends every day. The other thing I loved was the library – my school had an amazing library – I even used to stay there after class just to read. Oh boy, I sound so goody-goody, but it's true!

4 Host Did you like school?

D Not really.

Host Why?

D It was a boys' school, and I got a little bit fed up with just being with boys all the time.

5 Host Did you like school?

E It was all right. Some parts were better than others, of course. The classes I liked totally depended on the teacher. So for example physics and English were great, but chemistry and history were terrible. I generally liked sports, except in the winter. I made some good friends at school, and I'm still in touch with a few of them 30 years later, so I suppose that's positive!

6 Host Did you like school?

F Actually, I used to really love school. Classes were fine, and I always did well without having to work too hard. But the real reason I loved school was because I had a very good social life. I had a lot of friends, and we used to play basketball on the playground at lunchtime. I was one of the gang. I felt that I belonged there. I've never really felt like that since then.

5 11))

And our last story on today's News Hour is about an incredible coincidence. Have you ever put your name into Google or Facebook to see what comes up? One evening last April, an American woman, Kelly Hildebrandt, did just that. She was feeling bored, so she put her name into Facebook. She has a pretty unusual name, so she was amazed to discover that there was another person on Facebook with exactly the same first name and last name as her – but with one big difference. The other Kelly Hildebrandt was a man, and he lived in Texas. Kelly sent him a message, and they began to email each other. Later they started to call each other every day, and finally, they met in person. They discovered that they had more in common than just their name – they both love the beach, and they both really enjoy cooking. Soon they realized that they were in love. At first, they were worried that they might be related, but they found out that there was no family connection at all, and in October Kelly asked Kelly to marry him. The two Kelly's call each other "Kelly girl" and "Kelly boy," and they say that having the same name often causes confusion – once when Kelly boy booked travel tickets for them the travel agent almost canceled one ticket because he thought that booking two tickets with the same name was a mistake. But there is one thing that the two Kellys are very clear about – if they have children they definitely won't name them Kelly!

Rob But we'll still be in touch. You can visit me in London and I can come back here to see you.

Jenny It still won't be the same.

Rob No. No, it won't.

Jenny Maybe... I could come back to London with you?

Rob You can't do that Jenny. You've just got this job.

Jenny That's true.

Rob Well, we still have some time together. We're going out for dinner tonight!

Jenny Yes, and I'm going to take you somewhere really nice.

Rob Look at the time. I have to go now; it's my last interview in New York. I don't want to be late.

Jenny OK. See you later then.

Rob Bye.

Barbara Jenny, is Rob here?

Jenny Oh, you just missed him, Barbara.

Barbara I really need to talk to him. I'll try him on his cell phone. Hello, Rob? It's Barbara. Can you give me a call? There's something I'd like to talk about.

5 15))

Rob Jenny!

Jenny Rob! I have something to tell you.

Rob I have something to tell you, too. You go first.

Jenny Well. I thought again about moving to London...

Rob But you don't need to move to London.

Jenny What?

Rob Barbara called me earlier.

Jenny What about?

Rob She offered me a job. Here, in New York!

Jenny What?! Oh, that's great news.

Rob You don't seem very pleased.

Jenny I am, I mean, it's great! It's just that...

Rob What?

Jenny I sent Barbara an email this morning.

Rob And?

Jenny I told her I was quitting, and moving to London.

Rob Don't worry. Maybe she hasn't read your email yet.

Jenny I'll call her.

Barbara Hello, Barbara Keaton.

Jenny Barbara? It's Jenny.

Barbara Oh, hi Jenny.

Jenny Um, have you read your emails recently?

There's one from me.

Barbara Oh yes. I can see it. I haven't opened it yet.

Jenny Don't open it! Delete it! Please just delete it. I'll explain later.

Barbara OK. It's gone. Is everything alright, Jenny?

Jenny Yes, thanks. Never better.

5 19))

And finally on News Today here's a funny story to cheer you up on a Monday morning.

On Saturday night, Katie Parfitt, a nurse at a local hospital, came home from work. As soon as she opened the door, she realized that her cat, Joey, was behaving rather strangely. Instead of being happy to see her, he started attacking her, and then, when she sat down to have something to eat, Joey jumped onto the table and sat on her plate. Then he jumped down onto the floor and immediately went to sleep. He slept all night, snoring very loudly. Katie couldn't understand what the matter was with Joey – he had never behaved like this before. However, when she met her neighbor the next morning, the mystery was solved.

5 20))

My neighbor told me that he was having dinner at a cafe on Saturday. Suddenly he saw my cat Joey walk in through the door – it was open because it was a hot day. And then one of the people spilled his drink on the floor, and Joey started drinking it – he was probably thirsty. So, of course, when Joey got home he was completely drunk! I took him to the vet the next day, but luckily he's fine now.

5 21))

Iris Hello Rosemary. How are you this morning?

Rosemary Hello Iris. I'm fine thanks, but you'll never guess what's happened. Jack and Emma have broken up!

Iris No! Jack and Emma from next door? That can't be true. I saw them last week, and they looked really happy.

Rosemary No, it's definitely true. I heard them shouting. They were having a terrible argument.

Iris No! When?

Rosemary Last night. After he came home from work.

Iris What did they say?

Rosemary Well, I wasn't really listening...

Iris Of course not.

Rosemary But I couldn't help hearing. She was talking so loudly, and of course, the walls are very thin.

Iris So what did they say?

Rosemary Well, she said that she was going to stay with her mother! She told him that she wouldn't come back.

Iris Ooh, how awful. What about the children?

Rosemary She said she'd taken them to her sister. I suppose she'll take them with her in the end. And anyway, then five minutes later, I saw her leaving the house with a suitcase!

Iris No! Why do you think she's leaving him? Is he seeing another woman?

Rosemary I don't know. Ooh, here's my bus.

Iris I have to go and tell Mrs. Jones from across the street. She always thought there was something... something strange about him...

5 22))

Jack Hi, Emma. I'm back. Where are you?

Emma I'm upstairs in the bedroom. I'm packing.

Jack Why? Where are you going?

Emma I'm going to stay with my mom.

Jack What happened to her?

Emma She's had an accident. She fell on the street yesterday, and she's broken her leg.

Jack How awful. Poor thing. Can I help you with anything?

Emma Actually, yes. Could you get my small suitcase in the closet?

Jack How long do you think you'll have to stay?

Emma I won't come back until the weekend, I don't think. I'll have to make sure she's OK. I've taken the children to my sister's for the night, and she'll take them school tomorrow morning. Can you pick them up after school?

Jack Of course I can honey. Now don't worry about anything. We'll be absolutely fine, and here's your suitcase.

Emma Thanks, dear. The taxi'll be here in five minutes.

I was watching TV when the phone rang. (two verbs joined by when) then, after that

The most common way of linking consecutive actions is with then or after that, but NOT with after, e.g., I got up and got dressed. Then / After that I made a cup of coffee. NOT After I made a cup of coffee.

" I don't want to go to the party."	Jack told Anna (that) he didn't want to go to the party.

- Use reported speech to report (to tell somebody) what another person said.
 - We often introduce reported speech with said or told (+ person)
 - After said or told that is optional, e.g., He said (that) he loved me.
 - Pronouns often change in reported speech, e.g., I changes to he or she.
- "I'm tired." She told me (that) she was tired.*

- Verb tenses change like this:

direct speech	reported speech
"I can help you."	He said (that) he could help me.
(simple present)	(simple past)
"I'm watching TV."	She said (that) she was watching TV.
(present continuous)	(past continuous)
"I'll call you."	He told me (that) he would call me.
(will)	(would)
"I met a girl."	John told me (that) he had met a girl.
(simple past)	(past perfect)
"I've broken my leg."	Sara said (that) she had broken her leg.
(present perfect)	(past perfect)

say or tell?

You can use said or told in reported speech, but they are used differently.

You can't use said with an object or pronoun.

He said (that) he loved me. NOT He said me (that) he loved me.

You must use told with an object.

He told me (that) he loved me. NOT He told (that) he loved me.
