1B Charlotte's choice

1 GRAMMAR simple present

a Write negative sentences.

- 1 You get up early. You don't get up early.
- 2 It rains a lot here. It doesn't rain a lot here.
- 3 We live in a house. We don't live in a house.
- 4 I play tennis. I don't play tennis.
- 5 He has a beard. He doesn't have a beard.
- 6 They go to the gym. They don't go to the gym.
- 7 She writes a blog. She doesn't write a blog.

b Complete the questions with do or does.

- 1 When do you meet your friends?
- 2 Does your laptop have a webcam?
- 3 What time do we need to leave?
- 4 Does your mother work from home?
- 5 Which websites do you use most?
- 6 Does your best friend like action movies?
- 7 Does your brother spend a lot of time on Facebook?

c Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs in the box.

not come	earn	get along	study	invite	not like
live	prefer	not see	share	want	work

I am very different from my best friend, Tabitha. Tabitha <sup>1</sup> works as a nurse, and she <sup>2</sup> earns a lot of money. I'm a student, and I <sup>3</sup> study music in college. I <sup>4</sup> want to be a music teacher.

Tabitha <sup>5</sup> lives in a small house in the country, and I <sup>6</sup> prefer an apartment with some friends in the city. We often <sup>7</sup> invite friends for dinner, but Tabitha <sup>8</sup> doesn't like. She's really shy, so she <sup>9</sup> doesn't like being with other people. I'm very extroverted, so I <sup>10</sup> like to be in a group.

I <sup>11</sup> don't like Tabitha much because she's usually busy. But when we're together, we always <sup>12</sup> get along really well. Some people say that opposites attract, and for me and my best friend Tabitha, it's true.

2 VOCABULARY describing people

Appearance

a Complete the sentences.

- 1 Does your sister have brown eyes or blue eyes?
- 2 Tanya's dad doesn't have any hair. He's bald.

4 READING

- a Read the article. What happens on “Singles’ Day” in Shanghai?

November 11 is “Singles’ Day” in Shanghai, and every year a dating event takes place where all the single men and women of the city have the chance to meet a partner. Last year, it was so popular that the organizers had to close online registration because there were no more places.

Between 10,000 and 40,000 people attend the event every year. It’s held in a district of Shanghai called Thames Town. At least 50 dating agencies take part. They set up stands in the town hall with billboards displaying cards with the height, birth date, education, and annual income of thousands of clients. People who did not manage to register for the event organize their own unofficial dating system by writing their names and phone numbers on pieces of paper and attaching them to the fence outside the town hall.

More people take part in “Singles’ Day” every year because of the growing number of single adults in Shanghai. In the city, more than 24 percent of people over the age of 15 are unmarried.

- b Read the article again. Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

- 1 The people who take part in “Singles’ Day” aren’t married. T
2 Many people register for the event on the Internet. —
3 All of the dating events are in the town hall. —
4 People who don’t register for the event can’t find a partner on “Singles’ Day.” —
5 Every year, there are more single adults in Shanghai. —

- c Underline five words you don’t know. Check their meaning and pronunciation with a dictionary.

"Great location and service"

Located in the heart of the city, the Park Central New York is in easy walking distance of Carnegie Hall, Broadway, and the Museum of Modern Art (MOMA). Central Park is only three blocks away. Fifth Avenue, with its international boutiques and huge department stores, is only a ten-minute walk from the hotel. For guests who want to travel farther away, there are seven subway lines located within three blocks of the hotel.

The Park Central New York offers great service, great comfort, and great value. The hotel's bistro, Cityhouse, provides the perfect setting for dinner before a concert or a Broadway show in the evening. Guests can enjoy the reasonably priced specials menu while watching the world go by on Seventh Avenue through the bistro's oversized windows.

Because of its central location, the Park Central New York is the ideal hotel for tourists visiting the city for the first time. Our multi-lingual staff at the front desk is always happy to provide tour assistance and answer any questions guests may have.

Last summer, I<sup>1</sup> went (go) to Los Angeles to stay with my cousin for a few weeks. One afternoon, we<sup>2</sup> were having (have) lunch in a nice restaurant when my cousin<sup>3</sup> got (get) a call on her cell phone and went outside to talk. While she<sup>4</sup> was speaking (speak) to her friend, I suddenly<sup>5</sup> noticed (notice) a man in a black hat who<sup>6</sup> was sitting (sit) at the next table. It was the actor Johnny Depp! He was alone, and I<sup>7</sup> decided (decide) to take my chance. So I got up and<sup>8</sup> went (go) to his table. "Excuse me, could I have my photo taken with you?" I asked. He<sup>9</sup> said (say) yes, so I<sup>10</sup> stopped (stop) a waitress who<sup>11</sup> was passing (pass) by and gave her my camera. She<sup>12</sup> took (take) the photo of me and Johnny. I thanked them both, and then I returned to my table. When my cousin<sup>13</sup> came (come) back, I<sup>14</sup> smiled (smile). "Why are you looking so happy?" she asked. "I had my photo taken with Johnny Depp." "Johnny Depp? Where is he?" "He's sitting over there. Look!" She turned around to look and then started to laugh. "That's not Johnny Depp!" I<sup>15</sup> looked (look) at the man in the black hat – he<sup>16</sup> was laughing (laugh), too.

A lucky escape

Ten minutes later, it began to rain. Soon, Liz found it hard to see out of the front windshield. There was a lot of water on the road, so she drove more slowly. Although Liz was an experienced driver, she felt afraid.

An hour later, firefighters cut Liz out of the car. She went to the hospital, but the doctors sent her home because she didn't have any serious injuries. Her head was fine and she only had a few cuts and bruises. Her son went to collect the groceries from the car and gave the loaf of bread to his mother. Now, she is going to keep it as a souvenir.

1 One day last November, Liz Douglas decided to go grocery shopping. She drove to the supermarket and spent the morning doing her weekly shopping. She paid for her groceries, went back to the parking lot, and put the shopping bags on the back seat of the car. Then she started to drive home.

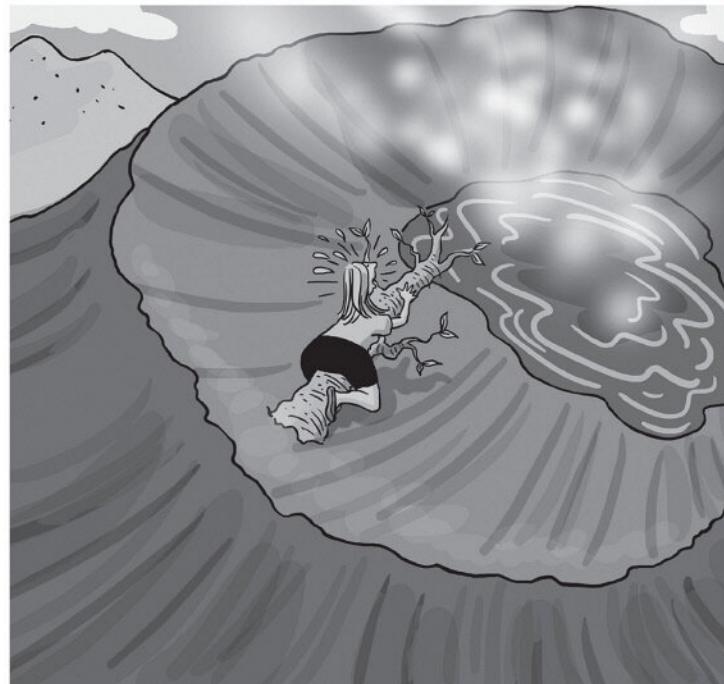

However, Liz was lucky. When she braked, a loaf of bread flew out of one of the shopping bags. The car turned over, and the loaf of bread landed between Liz's head and the roof of the car. It stopped her head from hitting the car roof.

Suddenly, she lost control of the car. She saw a telephone pole in front of her and braked. She closed her eyes and hoped that the airbags in the car would inflate. Unfortunately, they didn't.

2 VOCABULARY airports

Complete the text.

Last summer, I flew to New York City with my husband to visit some friends. The flight left from <sup>1</sup>Terminal 1, so my brother dropped us outside the building. We went inside and looked for the <sup>2</sup>e to take us upstairs to <sup>3</sup>D. We picked up our boarding passes at <sup>4</sup>Ch. Then we did some shopping. After that, we made our way to the <sup>5</sup>g to board our plane. We had a good flight, but we were very tired when we landed at JFK Airport. There was a long line at <sup>6</sup>P C, and they asked us a lot of questions at Immigration. Finally, we went to <sup>7</sup>B C to pick up our bags. We needed a <sup>8</sup>c this time because of all our suitcases. Nobody stopped us at <sup>9</sup>C, so we went straight to <sup>10</sup>A, where our friends were waiting for us.

The World's Biggest Airport

The world's busiest airport today is in the US. Nearly 54 million passengers pass through Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport every year. However, by the end of the next decade, there's going to be a new airport even bigger and busier than Atlanta. The new airport is going to be in the capital of China: Beijing.

Beijing already has two airports. The first is Beijing Capital International Airport, where an extra terminal was built for the 2008 Olympic Games. The second is Beijing Nanyuan Airport, which is mainly used by military planes. Just over 73 million passengers passed through Beijing Capital Airport last year, making it the second busiest after Atlanta. But the current airport is not big enough for all the Chinese passengers who want to travel by plane. This is why the government is going to build a new one.

The new airport is going to be in the suburb of Daxing, in the south of the city. Daxing is about an hour's drive from the center of the city. The government is going to extend Beijing's subway so that passengers can reach it more easily. There are also plans for a high-speed train line. The airport is going to have eight runways for commercial flights, and a ninth runway for military use. This is going to make it the biggest and the busiest airport in the world.

- a Read the advertisement for a vacation. How many nights does the tour last?

Tour of the Magic Triangle: Prague – Vienna – Budapest

Visit these three beautiful capital cities and discover their historic monuments and lively atmosphere. Enjoy three wonderful cultural performances and return with unforgettable memories.

Prague

The tour starts in Prague, capital of the Czech Republic. A free bus takes you from the airport to your hotel, where you spend three nights. The price includes a tour of the city, a cruise on the Vltava River, a visit to a spa resort, and a performance at the Laterna Magika theater. From Prague you travel first class by train to your next destination: Vienna.

Vienna

The Austrian capital has many spectacular monuments, which you can visit with the free 72-hour travel card that you receive when you arrive in Vienna. The price also includes a tour of the city, Viennese coffee and cakes at the famous Hotel Sacher, and a performance at the opera. After your three nights in Vienna you travel first class by train to your final destination: Budapest.

Budapest

You spend your last three nights in Budapest, the capital city of Hungary, where there are plenty of places to explore. The city is divided into two parts: the old historic city of Buda on the hill, and the commercial city of Pest on the other side of the Danube River. The price includes a tour of the city with a visit to the Hungarian Parliament Building a typical Hungarian dinner, a performance of classical music, and the return trip from your hotel to the airport.

At only $1,999, this is an opportunity you cannot afford to miss!

Eating out in NY

New York City has over 20,000 restaurants serving all kinds of food. However, eating out in the Big Apple can be very expensive. Here are some tips on how to save money during your stay.

Early-Bird Menus

These are meals served in some New York restaurants between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m., when they would normally be empty. If you don't mind having dinner early, you can enjoy a three-course meal for between $13 and $25.

Cucina di Pesce (87 E. 4th St.) serves great Italian food on its $12.95 early-bird menu. If you prefer something Spanish, you can try the $16.99 early-bird menu at La Paella (214 E. 9th St.).

Pre-Theater Dinner Menus

These are similar to early-bird menus, but they are served in the Theater District. Most of the restaurants here offer a special menu at a fixed price ranging from $30 to $45. The offer is only available before the show, and it starts at 5 p.m.

Four-Star Restaurants

These are all very expensive at dinnertime, so why not have lunch there instead? That way you can get dinner-quality food at lunchtime menu prices. Aquavit (65 E. 55th St.) serves fantastic Scandinavian food on a great lunch menu and Jean Georges (1 Central Park West) offers an excellent two-course lunch for only $28.

4 READING

a Read the text. Which is the best title?

- 1 Having a cleaner house
- 2 Equality in the home
- 3 Improving your relationship

Men and women all over the world have arguments about doing housework, and it's usually the women who lose. However, a study by researchers at the University of Michigan in the US shows that the situation is slowly improving.

The researchers asked 8,000 American families how much time they spent on housework each week. The researchers have asked the same 8,000 families the same questions every year since 1968. Then, each year, the researchers analyze the information.

The information showed that women in the US today spend about 16 hours a week doing housework. Men, on the other hand, spend about 12 hours a week doing the same things. Although women still spend more time doing domestic jobs, the figures show that the situation has improved. In the 1970s, women spent about 26 hours a week on housework and men only seven hours a week.

Researchers say that women are still doing most of the housework because people still divide domestic jobs into two areas. They see cooking, cleaning, and taking care of the children as "women's work," and general repairs, car maintenance, and work outside the home as "men's work."

So, in general, the results of the study bring good news for women. The difference between the amount of time men and women spend on housework is getting smaller every year. This means the time will come when both sexes share domestic chores equally. However, women will have to be extremely patient because the change won't be complete anytime soon!

b Read the text. Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

The fisherman and the banker

A banker was on vacation abroad. He was walking on a beautiful beach near a small town. He saw a fisherman in his boat with a few fish in it.

"Great fish!" he said. "How long did it take you to catch them?"

"Not very long," answered the fisherman.

"Why didn't you stay in the ocean longer to catch some more?" asked the banker.

"There are just enough fish here to feed my family," answered the fisherman.

Then the banker asked, "But what do you do the rest of the time?"

"I sleep late, I fish a little, I play with my kids, and I relax. In the evening, I go to see my friends in the town. We play the guitar. I'm busier than you think. Life here isn't as..."

The banker interrupted him. "I have an MBA from Harvard University, and I can help you. You're not fishing as much as you can. If you start fishing for longer periods of time, you'll get enough money from selling the fish to buy a bigger boat. Then with the money you'll get from catching and selling more fish, you could buy a second boat, and then a third one, and so on. Then instead of selling your fish to stores, you could sell them directly to a fish factory, or even open your own factory. Then you'll be able to leave your little town for the city, and finally move to New York City, where you could run the company."

"How long will that take?" asked the fisherman.

"About 15 to 20 years," answered the banker.

"And then?"

"Then it gets more interesting," said the banker, smiling and talking more quickly. "When the moment comes, you can put your company on the stock market, and you will make millions."

"Millions? But then what?"

"Then you can retire, live in a small town by the ocean, go to the beach, sleep late, play with your kids..."

Fruits & Veggies—More Matters

How much fruit do you eat every day? And how many vegetables? Food experts today think that we don't have enough of these foods in our diet, and they say that we eat too much fat and sugar. This is why the World Health Organization has started a campaign to encourage us to eat more fruits and vegetables. The campaign in the US is called Fruits & Veggies—More Matters.

Why eat fruits and vegetables?

Fruits and vegetables are full of important vitamins and minerals that our bodies need to be healthy. Scientific studies have shown that eating a lot of them can prevent some illnesses like diabetes and obesity. Also, fruits and vegetables don't contain much fat, and they don't have many calories, so they help us to keep thin.

What counts?

Almost all fruits and vegetables count toward your five a day, except potatoes. The food can be fresh, frozen, or in a can, like peaches or peas. It can be raw, cooked, or even dried, like raisins or banana chips. A glass of 100-percent fruit juice with no added sugar also counts as one serving.

How much is a serving?

A serving of fresh fruit or vegetables depends on the size of the food. In the case of small-sized fruit like plums or mandarin oranges, one serving is two pieces of fruit. A piece of medium-sized fruit like an apple, an orange, or a pear also counts as one serving. With larger fruit like melon and pineapple, one serving is a one-half cup or about 3 ounces. We use the same method for calculating servings with vegetables. In the case of salad vegetables, a medium-sized tomato or 3.5-inch piece of cucumber count as one serving each. For smaller, cooked vegetables like beans and carrots, one serving is three large spoonfuls of vegetables.

Fifth Avenue Shopping

Fifth Avenue is one of the most expensive shopping streets in the world. Most of the world's luxury boutiques are located here, including Gucci, Prada, Armani, and Cartier. It is also home to huge department stores like Lord & Taylor, Barneys, and Bergdorf Goodman. Most stores are open daily from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., and start later on Sundays. Here are some of the most well known:

FAO SCHWARZ

This world-famous toy store is popular with tourists and New Yorkers. The amazing Grand Hall has more than 20,000 colored lights. There's also a giant dance-on piano keyboard and an enormous candy store. Big kids can have a lot of fun in the do-it-yourself department, where they can even design their own doll.

RICKY'S

This ultra-fashionable beauty store has been selling the latest cosmetics, hair, and bath products for nearly two decades. Products range from the most expensive to the most ecological, so there's something for everybody. Upstairs, check out the fun clothing and accessories. You can also get temporary henna tattoos.

TIFFANY & CO.

This exclusive jewelry store has occupied its current location since 1940. Customers can admire the designer jewelry on the first floor before taking the elevator upstairs to choose an engagement ring. You can buy an elegant table, glass, and silverware on the fourth floor, and there are less pricey items on the third floor.

4 READING

- a Read the text. What did Paul learn from his experience?

An expensive lesson

My name's Paul, and this happened to me when I was visiting a friend in Paris.

I was getting off the Eurostar train at the Gare du Nord station when a man came up to me. He was wearing a suit, and he looked very respectable. "Do you speak English?" he asked. He had a French accent, but he said he was a banker from Montreal in the French-speaking part of Canada. Then he told me he had a problem. "I'm here in Paris with my wife and our three children, and we don't have enough money for a hotel. You see, my wife tried to get money from an ATM machine, but she couldn't remember our PIN number. She used the wrong number three times, so the machine kept her card. Could you help me?" I wasn't sure, so I asked to see his passport. "My passport is with my wife. She's waiting in a cafe with the children. We only need $100 for the night, and I promise I'll pay you back." By this time the man was actually crying, so I thought he was telling the truth. I agreed to lend him the money, and I wrote down his name, email address, and phone number in Montreal. Then we went to an ATM, and I gave him the money. He said thank you, gave me a big hug, and left. I never saw him or heard from him ever again.

I knew his story wasn't completely true. Why did a banker have only one bank card? Why didn't he tell me how he would pay me back? Were his wife and children really in the cafe, and did they even exist? But I was tired and in a foreign country, and I felt like I had to help him. I now know to be very careful who I talk to when I arrive somewhere new!

4 READING

a Read the article. Is the writer generally positive or negative about mothers-in-law?

The truth about mothers-in-law

Although it's men who tell jokes about them, mothers-in-law are usually less popular with their daughters-in-law than with their sons-in-law. A recent study of 49 married couples found that two thirds of wives interviewed said that their mothers-in-law caused them "unhappiness and stress," compared with 15 percent of the husbands.

There are a number of reasons for this. First of all, there is the question of experience. A mother-in-law has already raised a family of her own, so she feels that she has a lot of knowledge to pass on. In this situation, it is very difficult for her to keep quiet. However, when a daughter-in-law is a new mother, she usually wants to find her own way of doing things. She often interprets her mother-in-law's advice as criticism, which can cause a conflict.

Secondly, there is the case of the husband. Both women care for him, although each of them loves him in a different way. On the one hand, he is the mother-in-law's son, and she obviously wants the best for him. On the other hand, he is the wife's partner, and she wants him to support her. Both women can get very upset if they see the man taking sides, and this can cause an argument.

However, mothers-in-law actually have a lot to offer, despite their reputation for causing trouble. They are generally excellent babysitters, and they don't mind helping with the housework. As long as they have their own independent lives and help out only when needed, mothers-in-law can play a very useful role in any family. The important thing is that they should not get too involved in their sons' and daughters' relationships so that nobody feels bad.

b Read the article again and choose the best answer.

- 1 What did the study find out about mothers-in-law?
  - a More men than women have problems with them.
  - b More men than women tell jokes about them.
  - c More women than men have problems with them.
- 2 What advice do mothers-in-law try to give their daughters-in-law?
  - a How to take care of their husband.
  - b How to bring up children.
  - c How to do housework.
- 3 According to the article, which situation makes daughters-in-law angry?
  - a When their husband agrees with his mother.
  - b When their husband talks to his mother.
  - c When their husband argues with his mother.
- 4 Which women make the best mothers-in-law?
  - a Those who are really close to their son.
  - b Those who don't have a life of their own.
  - c Those who know when to offer help.
- 5 Underline five words you don't know. Use your dictionary to look up their meaning and pronunciation.

5 LISTENING

a  Listen to a conversation between two people about a ban on mother-in-law jokes. Do they agree in the end?

Reading the digital way

Many of us who love <sup>1</sup> reading (read) are changing our habits. Today, a lot of us have decided <sup>2</sup> _____ (use) E-readers, and so we've stopped <sup>3</sup> _____ (buy) traditional books.

E-readers have a number of advantages. They are very easy <sup>4</sup> _____ (carry), so they are ideal for people who like <sup>5</sup> _____ (travel). If you're abroad, and you don't have anything <sup>6</sup> _____ (read), you don't need <sup>7</sup> _____ (look for) a bookstore that has books in your language – you can download it as a digital book. In addition to this, E-readers are very private, so you don't need <sup>8</sup> _____ (show) people what you are reading. Finally, when you finish <sup>9</sup> _____ (read) a book, you no longer have to find room for it on a bookshelf.

However, there are some disadvantages. Some people say their eyes hurt if they spend a long time <sup>10</sup> _____ (look) at the screen. Also, you have to be careful <sup>11</sup> _____ (not lose) your E-reader or you'll lose all your books. In addition, if a friend would like <sup>12</sup> _____ (borrow) a book you've read, you can't offer <sup>13</sup> _____ (lend) it to them. With an E-reader, you can only continue <sup>14</sup> _____ (read) as long as the battery lasts, so you have to remember <sup>15</sup> _____ (take) your charger with you and you can't forget <sup>16</sup> _____ (charge) the battery.

4 READING

- a Read the opinions about learning languages. Which do you think are the three best ideas?

What's the best way to...? Learn a language

This week we ask students from all over the world for their ideas.

Gloria, Brazil

My favorite way to learn a language is to go to a language school and take a class. There are classes for many levels of English, whether you're beginning or you've been learning for a long time. It's great when you have other students in the class and you can learn and practice together, and of course, having a teacher to help you is really important. It's good to do your homework, too!

Ji-ho, South Korea

I think it's really hard to learn a language if you don't have anyone to talk to. I've joined a social networking site where I can chat in English to a lot of other people like me. I'm more interested in using English to communicate than anything else, so I don't mind if my grammar isn't perfect.

Paolo, Portugal

I don't have time to go to an English class, but there's a great site on the Internet that has classes in the form of podcasts. Every week, I download a few of these onto my phone so that I can listen to the class when I'm going to and from work. I find the words and phrases that I have to listen to and repeat extremely useful.

Suzen, Turkey

I'm a big fan of American pop music, so I spend a lot of time listening to different songs at home on my iPad. I've downloaded a new app that puts the lyrics on the screen and translates the song for you at the same time. I really enjoy learning English like this, and it's very good for my pronunciation, too.

Kiko, Japan

I can't afford to pay for one-on-one English classes, but I've found a great class online. I have to watch a short video, and then learn the grammar and vocabulary in it. If I have any questions, I can contact my online tutor who's very friendly. I'm really enjoying the class, and I've learned a lot from it.

Luis, Spain

I love books, and in my opinion, you can learn a lot of new words by reading in English. I look up difficult words with my dictionary or do a quick search online. Also, I can read a book whenever I want. I don't have to go to classes or pay a lot of money for private tutors. Books are great. I can learn English and about other subjects, too!

- b Complete the sentences with the people's names.

- 1 Suzen thinks that listening to songs helps her pronunciation.
- 2 _____ says that reading can improve your vocabulary.
- 3 _____ has contact with an online teacher.
- 4 _____ thinks that speaking is more important than grammar.
- 5 _____ likes meeting and practicing with other students.

4 READING

- a Read the article about five famous chefs. Do you recognize any of them?

Ferran Adriá is a Spanish chef who is famous for preparing food scientifically. After serving in the military, Adriá got a job at elBulli in Catalonia, Spain as a line cook. He became head chef only 18 months later. elBulli closed in 2012, but it had three Michelin stars and was once voted the best restaurant in the world. Adriá has published several books and has taught a class at Harvard University.

Georges Auguste Escoffier was France's most important chef in the early 1900s. He was responsible for making traditional French food more modern and simple. He also made cooking food a respected job by introducing organized systems to restaurant kitchens. The French call Escoffier "the king of chefs and the chef of kings." He wrote cookbooks, cooked for royalty, and managed several restaurant kitchens during his successful career.

Jamie Oliver is one of the UK's best-loved TV chefs. His shows have been broadcast internationally in countries like the US, South Africa, Australia, Brazil, Japan, and Iceland. His books have been translated into thirty languages. Jamie is most famous for his campaigns to encourage schoolchildren to eat healthily. He's married with four children.

Tom Colicchio is a popular American chef and owner of Craft, a restaurant in New York City. He has always been interested in food and cooking, but he never graduated from a cooking school. He taught himself how to cook using French cooking guides. Despite this, he is the head judge on the reality TV cooking show Top Chef and the winner of five James Beard Foundation Medals for accomplishments in cooking.

Masaharu Morimoto is one of Japan's top chefs, and is well known for combining Japanese and Western food into delicious meals. He started his career as a baseball player at 17, but changed to cooking and opened his first restaurant at 24. Morimoto is probably most famous for starring in the TV reality shows Iron Chef and Iron Chef America, where he competes against other chefs in timed cooking battles.

CROCODILE ATTACK!

If you were swimming at the edge of the water in Southern Florida in the US, and you saw a crocodile coming toward you, what would you do?

"I'd run away fast."

"I'd pretend to be dead."

"I'd try to open its mouth."

"I'd put my fingers into its eyes."

"I'd make a loud noise."

"I'd try to fight it."

- b Now read the rest of the article. Circle the sentence that is the best summary.

- 1 There's nothing you can do if a crocodile attacks you.
- 2 There are a lot of things you can do if a crocodile attacks you.
- 3 There's only one thing to do if a crocodile attacks you.

Well, most of these are possible – the best thing to do depends on where the crocodile is at the time. If it comes toward you on land, experts say you should turn around and run away as fast as possible. Crocodiles can run faster than humans over a short distance, but they soon get tired. If they miss their first chance to catch their victim, they usually start looking for something else.

If you're in the water, then splash around to make a noise so that the animal gets confused. If this doesn't work, push your thumb or fingers into the crocodile's eye. This is the most sensitive area of the crocodile's body, and it is the place where you can cause the animal the most pain. It will also be very surprised by your attack, and it's possible that it will decide to leave you alone. Don't try and open the crocodile's mouth because the muscles are so strong that this is almost impossible.

However, if the crocodile is in a bad mood, it's possible that it will continue fighting. Your final opportunity is to pretend to be dead. If the crocodile thinks that its victim is dead, it opens its mouth for a few seconds to move the body into its throat. This can give you your last chance to escape, but it's a very dangerous plan.

Our final advice? It's much better to avoid crocodiles than to do any of the things above...

A celebrity's life Kristen Stewart, actress

Kristen Stewart has been a famous actress <sup>1</sup> for about five years now. She has been an actress <sup>2</sup> since she was eight years old, when her agent saw her performing at school. Her first role was in a movie where she didn't speak, but <sup>3</sup> then she has been in many movies. She is probably best known for playing Bella Swan in The Twilight Saga, a part which she has played <sup>4</sup> for four years.

Kristen has lived in Los Angeles <sup>5</sup> since she was born. Because she was acting at a young age, she couldn't go to school, so she studied online.

<sup>6</sup> Then, she has completed high school. She is now one of the best-paid actresses in Hollywood. Something many people don't know about Kristen is that she has equinophobia, or a fear of horses. She has had this problem <sup>7</sup> for most of her life, but her fans have only known about it <sup>8</sup> since 2012, when she was making a movie with horses. Kristen explained that she has been scared of them <sup>9</sup> since she was nine years old, when she fell off a horse during a riding accident.

4 READING

a Read the text about John Lennon. Order the paragraphs 1–7.

John Lennon and his sons

A  On December 8, 1980, one of John Lennon's fans shot him outside his apartment. Since then, both of his sons have become musicians. Julian Lennon has made six albums and Sean Lennon has sung and played bass guitar with a number of different bands. So far, however, neither of them have been as successful as their father.

B  John Lennon was born in Liverpool on October 9, 1940. His parents separated when he was five, so he went to live with an aunt and uncle. However, he stayed in contact with his mother, who played him Elvis Presley records and taught him how to play the banjo.

C  Before The Beatles broke up in 1970, John met the Japanese artist, Yoko Ono, and he divorced his first wife. He left the band and continued making music both on his own and with Yoko. Their son, Sean, was born on October 9, 1975 and John stayed at home to take care of him.

D  When John was 15, his mother bought him his first guitar. He formed his first band called The Quarrymen while he was still at school. When he graduated from high school, he took classes at Liverpool College of Art but the band took up a lot of his time, so he didn't graduate from college.

E  The band released its first single "Love Me Do" in October, 1962. They started touring the country. John married his first wife, Cynthia, in secret, and his first son, Julian, was born while they were away. Fans went crazy wherever The Beatles played, and all of their albums reached the number one spot on the charts.

F  The singer-songwriter and guitarist John Lennon is one of the greatest musicians of all time. Songs like "Give Peace a Chance" and "Imagine" made him famous all over the world.

G  John met Paul McCartney at the second performance of The Quarrymen, and he soon joined the band. Later, George Harrison joined them as lead guitarist. In 1960, they became The Beatles, and they started looking for a drummer. Ringo Starr replaced their original drummer, Pete Best, in 1962.

b  Circle the correct verb form in the questions.

- 1 When was / has been John Lennon born?
- 2 What did his mother buy / has his mother bought for him?
- 3 How long were / have been The Beatles together?
- 4 How long ago did John Lennon die / has John Lennon died?

4 READING

Read the article and answer these questions.

- 1 How far is it from the airport to Manhattan? 15 miles
2 How long does it take to drive there when it isn't rush hour?
3 How much does AirTrain JFK cost for two people one way?
4 How much does a taxi cost for four people?
5 How much do taxis charge per suitcase?
6 What time is the earliest bus to Manhattan?
7 How much is the fare for an adult and a six-year-old child?

JFK (John F. Kennedy) International Airport is the largest of the three airports serving New York City. It is located in southeastern Queens, about 15 miles (24 km) from Manhattan. Travel time to Manhattan by car during rush hour can be over an hour; at other times it's about thirty to forty minutes.

Getting into town from the airport

Although AIRTRAIN JFK does not travel directly to Manhattan, it connects passengers to New York's subway and bus networks. The trip costs $5 and takes about an hour, depending on your destination. If you don't mind carrying your own luggage, this is probably your best option.

TAXIS are available outside every terminal in the airport, and there's a $52 flat fee plus tolls to any location in Manhattan. Taxis will take up to four passengers, and there is no additional charge for luggage.

NEW YORK AIRPORT SERVICE EXPRESS BUSES run every 20 to 30 minutes from 6:15 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. from each of the airport terminals. The fare is $15 one-way, but you can save money by buying round-trip tickets online. One free child under 12 is included in the fare. You can choose to get off at Grand Central, Port Authority, or Penn Station and the ride takes about an hour.

My schooldays

DAVID SUCHET, actor, played Hercule Poirot in the TV series of Agatha Christie murder mysteries.

Interview by Tim Oglethorpe

1 Where did you go to school?

Grenham House, a boarding school in Kent, and Wellington School, a private school in Somerset.

2

One thing my schooldays did teach me was the importance of teamwork. At boarding school, I was an outsider and I was really, truly unhappy there. When I started playing sports at Grenham House, I became a member of a team, and I felt a lot better about myself. Like sports, acting is also almost always a team event, and you rely just as much on other people as they do on you.

3

Yes, I did. My brother and I both went to the same school and sometimes, we used to break the rules. In private schools at that time, a common punishment used to be "the cane": a long stick that the teacher used for hitting naughty boys.

4

Well, I wasn't very academic at all, really, and I was very bad at math. Luckily for me, I was really good at sports and that's the only reason they accepted me at Wellington. I was on the school rugby team, and I also played tennis. I played at Wimbledon once, in the junior tournament, and I got through to the second round.

5

Although I was good at sports, I never really considered taking it up professionally. Once I left Wellington, I wanted to become an actor, and I didn't play as many sports when I left school.

Yes, my favorite teacher was Mr. Storr, coach of the school tennis team, and also my English teacher. One day, when I was 14 or 15, I had to read in class. After the class, he said to me, "The way you read suggests you might enjoy acting. Would you consider playing Macbeth in the school play?" That was the beginning of my acting career, and I've never looked back since.

- b Read the interview again. Mark the sentences T (true) or F (false).

Let me sleep on it

For many years, people have said that a good night's sleep often helps when you have to make an important decision. Research done recently by an American university has shown that this idea is actually true.

The researchers used a card game for their experiment, and 54 students between the ages of 18 and 23 took part. The scientists divided the participants into two groups. Both groups were given a short lesson on how to play the card game, either in the morning or in the evening. The lesson was very short—not long enough for either group to learn exactly how the card game worked. All of the students were asked to come back 12 hours later. The 28 students who had the class in the afternoon went home to a normal evening and their usual night of sleep, while the 26 who received the class in the morning came back after a day of normal activities without sleep.

On their second visit, the students played the game for long enough to learn that taking cards from the four different packs gave different results. Two of the packs had cards that helped players win more often while the other two packs had cards that made them lose. The object was to avoid losing the game.

In the experiment, the students who had had a normal night's sleep chose cards from the winning packs four times more than those who had spent the 12-hour break awake. The students who had slept also understood better how to play the game.

These results show that sleep helps a person make better decisions. The researchers think that this has something to do with rapid-eye-movement, or REM sleep, which is the creative period of our sleep cycle. The experiment shows that there is a connection between REM sleep and decision making, but researchers do not yet know what the connection is.

Last day at school for boy with dirty shoes!

Last Wednesday started as usual for 15-year-old Michael Brewster at Hove Park School.

At 10:30 a.m., Michael's class was jogging <sup>1</sup> around the gym. But when Charles Duff, the PE teacher, told Michael to clean his dirty sneakers, he got really angry. He ran <sup>2</sup>              the gym, and back to the changing rooms where he found Mr. Duff's keys. From there, he went <sup>3</sup>              the parking lot, got <sup>4</sup>              Mr. Duff's Ford, and started the car. Then he drove <sup>5</sup>              the road, <sup>6</sup>              the bridge, <sup>7</sup>              the security guard, and <sup>8</sup>              the school gates. Then he turned left and drove <sup>9</sup>              the road for about 300 feet <sup>10</sup>              the math teacher's house. That was when he lost control. He tried to stop, but instead went <sup>11</sup>              a field and crashed into a tree. Michael no longer attends Hove Park School.

Five tips for getting a better night's sleep

Sleep at the same times

<sup>1</sup> Find out how much sleep you need and make sure that you get it. Go to bed and <sup>2</sup> _____ at the same time each day and you will have more energy than if you sleep the same number of hours at different times.

Make sure you are exposed to light during the day

Your body needs natural light to produce the hormone melatonin, which regulates your sleeping and waking cycle. Don't stay inside all day – <sup>3</sup> _____ during your lunch break, for example, for a short walk. On a sunny day, <sup>4</sup> _____ your sunglasses for at least half an hour to let light onto your face.

Create a relaxing routine before going to bed

Take a hot bath. Then <sup>5</sup> _____ your pajamas and make sure your bedroom is at the right temperature. Don't watch TV in bed because it will stimulate rather than relax you.

Avoid stimulants

Don't eat big meals or drink coffee late at night. Avoid drinking alcohol before you go to bed and <sup>6</sup> _____ smoking! Cigarettes can cause a number of sleep problems.

Getting back to sleep

If you wake up in the middle of the night and can't get back to sleep, try a relaxation technique like meditation. If that doesn't work, <sup>7</sup> _____ the light and read a book. If you're worried about something, <sup>8</sup> _____ your problem on a piece of paper so that you can deal with it in the morning.

If the tips above don't help, you might need to see a sleep doctor.

4 READING

a Read the article and choose the best title.

- 1 A town with a mystery
- 2 The problems of having twins
- 3 Why couples have twins

Today, there are two thousand families living in the village of Kodinhi in southern India. Among them, there are more than 300 sets of twins, which is six times the global average. What makes this even more unusual is that India has one of the lowest birth rates of twins in the world.

Nobody can explain the reason why the village has so many twins. Some people say the cause might be genetic, but local doctor, Dr. Sribiju, doesn't think so. He says that there haven't always been twins in Kodinhi – parents suddenly started having them about sixty or seventy years ago. Neither does he believe that a new kind of pollution has caused the twins to be born. In that case, he argues, there would be more twins with birth defects. Luckily, most of Kodinhi's twins are born healthy. Dr. Sribiju thinks that the twins are born because of something the villagers eat and drink. He wants to discover just what that is, so that he can use it to help other couples who can't have children.

Having twins in this part of India can be a big problem for a family. It's expensive, and it can be dangerous for the mother's health. That's why the villagers of Kodinhi have started a support group. The group is called the Twins and Kin* Association, or TAKA for short. The president of the group is 50-year-old Pullani Bhaskaran, who has twin sons of his own. He wants all the twins in Kodinhi to join the group so that they can help each other. With the more than 300 pairs of twins in the village and the other people in their families, TAKA currently has 600 members.

3 READING

- a Read the text. Which sentence is the best summary?
- 1 American and British English are almost exactly the same.
  - 2 The most important difference between American and British English is the vocabulary.
  - 3 Travelers don't have problems understanding American and British English.

American and British English

If you've learned American English and you're traveling in Britain, or if you've learned British English and you're traveling in the US, you'll notice some differences. An obvious difference is the accent, but most travelers find that they don't have too many problems with this. There are some grammatical differences, but they shouldn't make it difficult to understand people, or to communicate. That leaves differences in vocabulary, which can cause misunderstandings. Sometimes the difference is only the spelling, for example, in American English center, color, and traveled, and in British English centre, colour, and travelled. But sometimes the word is completely different in American and British English, so it's a good idea to be prepared.

- b Match the American English with the British English.

1 check	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	a taxi
2 fries	<input type="checkbox"/>	b mobile
3 pharmacy	<input type="checkbox"/>	c cheque
4 first floor	<input type="checkbox"/>	d lift

Host Hello, and welcome to Love Online. Today, we'd like you, the listeners, to call in and tell us about your experiences with online relationships. And – oh, my! – that's quick! – we already have our first caller. Hello?
Alan Hi, my name's Alan.
Host Hello, Alan. Can you tell us about your experience with Internet dating?
Alan Yes, of course. I'm pretty shy, you see, and I'm not very good at talking to girls I don't know. So one day, I registered on an online dating agency, and I met Susan.
Host And what happened?
Alan We got along really well. In fact, after four months, we got engaged.
Host Congratulations, Alan! Thanks for calling. Now, I think we have another caller. Hello?
Kate Hi, I'm Kate.
Host Hello, Kate. What can you tell us about love online?
Kate Well, I decided to try a dating site because I work long hours, and I don't have time to meet new people.
Host So what happened?
Kate Well, I met some guys, and then I met Craig.
Host Who's Craig?
Kate Well, now, he's my husband. We're very happy together and we're thinking of having children.
Host That's great news, Kate! It looks as if it is possible to find love online. Now, who's our next caller?
Paolo Paolo.
Host Hi, Paolo. Did you marry someone you met on the Internet?
Paolo Yes, I did, but it was the worst thing I ever did.
Host Oh. Why's that?

Paolo Because she didn't really love me.

Host How do you know that?
Paolo It was in the newspaper. There was an article about a woman who contacted men online, married them, and then left with all their money. And there was a photo of my wife next to the article.
Host Oh, I'm sorry to hear that, Paolo. And I'm afraid that's all we have time for today. Join me next week for another edition of Love Online...

1 C))

And now for the latest news in the art world. If you're in Paris this weekend, you might like to visit the new David Hockney exhibition called Fresh Flowers. As the name suggests, most of the pictures depict flowers. However, these are no ordinary flower pictures, because Hockney uses his iPhone or his iPad to draw them.

Hockney started painting on his iPhone during the winter of 2008. At the time, he was staying at his home in northern England where he has a beautiful view out of his bedroom window. One morning, he picked up his iPhone and used his fingers to paint the sunrise. He was very happy with the result, and started experimenting with other pictures. Now, he sends his friends a different flower picture every morning. They love it!

Fresh Flowers is at the Fondation Pierre Bergé, Yves Saint Laurent in Paris until January 30th. The exhibition shows the drawings Hockney made on an iPhone and the pictures he drew on an iPad. The gallery is open from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. from Tuesday to Friday, and admission costs five euros. Don't miss this show; it will be a bright moment in your day.

2 A))

Speaker 1 When I was 17, I went on vacation with my parents to Brittany, in France. My parents rented a nice house on the beach, and the weather was great. We went for a delicious meal for my birthday, but I was miserable. I wanted to be with my friends, and I didn't smile once in two weeks!

Speaker 2 A few years ago, I went to visit an old school friend, but I didn't enjoy the weekend at all. At school we got along really well, but now she has two small children, so she didn't want to go out. I spent a very boring two days in her house watching TV. I don't think I'm going to visit her again.

Speaker 3 It's really hot where we live, so we always try to go on vacation where it's cool. Last year, we booked a vacation in Canada, but we arrived in the middle of a heat wave. It was awful because there was no air-conditioning anywhere. We just sat in cafes and argued all day. We can do that at home!

Speaker 4 When I finished college, I went on a cruise around the Mediterranean with some friends from my classes. We wanted to celebrate the end of our exams. As soon as we left the port, I started feeling seasick. I spent the whole week in bed, and I hated every minute of the cruise.

Speaker 5 Three years ago, I broke up with my boyfriend, so I decided to go on an expensive vacation on my own to the Seychelles. Unfortunately, the travel agent didn't tell me that the islands were popular with couples on their honeymoon. Everywhere I looked, there were people holding hands, and I felt very lonely.

2 B))

Jenny What should we do this afternoon, Matt?
Matt I know! Let's take a look at that box of photos my aunt gave me yesterday... Here it is... Oh, look at that!
Jenny Who's that?

Matt That's my grandfather. And that's my grandmother behind him on the right. She's the one in the flowery dress. It was just after they got married, before they had any children. My aunt told me all about this photo a few years ago.

Jenny So, where are they?
Matt Well, as you know my dad is Spanish. My grandparents lived in the center of Madrid, and this photo was taken in the district where they lived.

Jenny What's going on exactly?
Matt Well, there's a festival there called "La Paloma". It takes place in the middle of August every year, and it still happens now. There are lots of stalls selling food and also stalls where you can win a prize.

Jenny So, what was your grandfather trying to win?
Matt He was trying to win a bracelet for my grandmother. He was shooting at a target at the stall, and all those people were watching him.

Jenny Do you know any of the other people in the photo?
Matt No, I don't. But I think they all lived near my grandfather.

Jenny Who took the photo?
Matt The man at the stall. The photo was included in the price. You had three chances to hit the target, and you got the photo for free.
Jenny It's a great photo. I think your grandfather was very good-looking!
Matt That's what everyone says!

2 C))

Host Hello, and welcome to the program. Today, we're looking at lucky escapes, and Nick Williams from the news desk is here to tell us some amazing stories. Nick?

Nick Hi, Gloria. Well, my first story is about a tourist who fell into a volcano. Maureen Eason was walking at the top of the Teide volcano in Tenerife, when she tripped and fell. She fell 80 feet until she hit a tree, which stopped her fall and saved her life. The rescue operation took nearly four hours, and after that, Maureen spent two months in the hospital before she could go home.

Host Lucky Maureen! What else do you have for us?
Nick Joseph Rabadue had a lucky escape when he was at home watching TV. Joseph was sitting on the floor, so his father told him to go and sit on the sofa. Five minutes later, a truck crashed into their living room, and threw the family television into the air. The TV then landed on the exact spot where Joseph had been on the floor before.

Host What a lucky escape! Do you have anymore?
Nick Yes, just one more for now. One Saturday morning, Barry McRoy was leaving a cafe when two men came in. The men were fighting, and one of them had a gun. The man fired, and the bullet hit Barry in the chest. Luckily, he had a DVD in the pocket of his jacket at the time, and the DVD stopped the bullet. Barry McRoy is a very lucky man.

Host Absolutely! So, now it's time for you, the listeners, to call in and tell us about your own experiences. And here's our first caller.

Dialogue 1

Woman 1 John!
Man 1 Hi, Jane. You look well.
Woman 1 You, too. How was your flight?
Man 1 We took off a little late, but it was fine.
Woman 1 Are you hungry?
Man 1 No, I had a sandwich on the plane.
Woman 1 Well, let's go and find the car. It isn't far.

Man 1 Great!

Dialogue 2

Check-in clerk Hello. Where are you flying to?

Passenger To Boston.

Check-in clerk Can I see your passport, please?

Passenger Here you are.

Check-in clerk Thanks. Can I see your carry-on luggage?

Passenger Yes, just this bag.

Check-in clerk OK. Here's your boarding pass. The flight is boarding at 4:50 p.m. from Gate B28. You're in Group B.

Passenger Thanks a lot.

Check-in clerk Enjoy your flight.

Dialogue 3

Immigration Officer Can I see your passport please, sir?

Passenger Here you are.

Immigration Officer What is the purpose of your visit, Mr. Green?

Passenger I'm going to stay with a friend.

Immigration Officer And how long are you going to stay in San Francisco?

Passenger For three weeks.

Immigration Officer Can I have a contact telephone number, please?

Passenger Yes. My friend's number is 415-555-7020.

Immigration Officer Thank you, Mr. Green. Enjoy your stay.

Dialogue 4

Woman 2 Look! There's a gray suitcase. Is it ours?

Man 2 No, it's too big. Ours is much smaller.

Woman 2 It's taking a long time to come out...

Man 2 Yes. The first one came out really quickly.

Woman 2 Look! There it is! Finally!

Man 2 You stay here with the other bags. I'm going to get it.

Woman 2 OK. I'll wait for you here.

Dialogue 5

Customs Officer Excuse me, ma'am. Can you come this way, please?

Passenger Yes, of course.

Customs Officer Do you have anything to declare?

Passenger No, I don't think so. I bought some chocolate in the duty-free store, but that's all.

Customs Officer Can I check your bag, please?

Passenger Sure. Go ahead.

Customs Officer OK...That's fine. You can go on through.

Passenger Thank you.

3(B))

Chris Hi, Dawn. I hear you're going to be on vacation next week.

Dawn Yes, I am. And I'm really looking forward to it.

Chris What are you going to do?

Dawn I'm taking a train trip through Mexico with a friend.

Chris A train trip? I did that when I was a student. I traveled with very little money, not much food, and no sleep. It was fun, but I don't want to do it again.

Dawn Ah, but you see taking a train trip as an adult is very different.

Chris Really? In what way?

Dawn Well, to start with, I'm going to travel first class, so it'll be much more comfortable.

Chris How long are you going for?

Dawn I wanted to go for two weeks, but work's so busy right now... so just ten days.

Chris And which places are you visiting?

Dawn Chihuahua, Creel, Divisadero, Cerocahul, and Los Mochis. We're starting in El Paso, Texas, in the US and ending in Los Mochis in Mexico. We're driving to Mazatlán at the end of the trip because we want to spend a few days at the beach.

Chris What about sleeping arrangements? Are you going to sleep on the train?

Dawn No, there aren't any sleeping compartments on this particular train, so we're sleeping in hotels every night. We're having most of our meals in the dining car of the train, though. I'm looking forward to enjoying my meals as the Mexican countryside goes by.

Chris Well, it sounds like a different kind of trip than the one I went on as a student.

Dawn Absolutely. It's going to be different, but I'm sure we're going to have a lot of fun.

3(C))

Host Hello, and welcome to The World of Words.

Today, we're going to look at word games, so let's start with the most popular of them all: Scrabble. Ricky Jones from the National Scrabble Association is here to tell us all about it. Ricky, who actually invented the game?

Ricky Well, it was an American named Alfred Mosher Butts. Butts was an unemployed architect, and in his free time he did a lot of crossword puzzles. These crossword puzzles gave him the idea for a game that he called Lexico. The game had the same letter tiles as Scrabble, but no board. Players used the letter tiles to make words. They scored by adding up the points on each of the letter tiles. Later, Butts introduced a board, and a set of rules and changed the name to Criss-Cross Words.

Host How did Butts decide how many points to give each letter?

Ricky He counted how many times each letter appeared on the front page of the New York Times. Then, depending on the frequency of each letter, he gave it between one and ten points. The most common letters, like the vowels, got only one point because they are easier to use. There are more of these letters in the game. There was only one tile for each of the least common letters, for example Q and Z, which got ten points.

Host So, when did Butts' original game become the modern game of Scrabble?

Ricky Well, in 1948, Butts met a businessman named James Brunot, who designed a new board and changed the name of the game to Scrabble. Then in 1952, the president of Macy's, the famous New York department store, discovered the game on vacation, and loved it so much he placed a large order. Butts and Brunot knew they couldn't produce enough Scrabble sets for Macy's, and so they sold the rights to the game to another manufacturer. Today, Scrabble is sold in 121 countries in 29 different languages.

Host What a story, Ricky! Thank you for sharing it with us.

Ricky My pleasure.

Speaker 1 Housework? Me? No, that's my mom's job.

She only goes to work two days a week, so she has enough time to cook and clean and things like that. I go to school and then I see my friends, so I'm too busy to do housework. My dad goes to work every day, so he doesn't have time either.

Speaker 2 Well, I try and help my mom when I can.

I make my bed when I get up in the morning, and I always set the table for dinner. I usually clean my room, but my mom is the one who cleans it. Apart from that, I'm not at home very much, so I don't do anything else.

Speaker 3 Oh, yes. Everyone in my family helps with the housework. There are four of us and we're all very busy. During the week, my mom or my dad cooks the dinner, and my brother and I do the dishes. We do the cleaning together on Saturday mornings.

Speaker 4 It's true – I don't do much housework, but I love cooking. I don't have time to cook during the week, but I do all the cooking on the weekend. My mom does all the cleaning, though. She says she doesn't mind it.

Speaker 5 We have a cleaning lady who comes in every day and she does all our housework. She makes the beds, cleans the floors, and cleans our rooms – she even does the ironing! I'm not sure who does the shopping, but the refrigerator is always full. That's the important thing!

Host Those listeners in the US who enjoy going shopping will be interested to hear our next news story. There are many wonderful shopping malls in the US, but did you know that a new mall in London is one of the most stylish places to shop these days? It's taken six years and 2.35 billion dollars to build, but the Westfield shopping mall has opened in Stratford, in East London. We sent our reporter, Juliet Redditch, over to take a look at what is now Europe's largest urban shopping mall. Juliet, what's it like in Westfield right now?

Juliet Well, Terry, there are crowds of people everywhere, especially outside the stores that have special opening sales. Some stores have called security staff to help them control the lines.

Host Just how big is Westfield, Juliet?

Juliet Oh, it's very big! There are two enormous department stores, a huge supermarket, and 300 smaller stores. You can spend all day here if you want to. I haven't decided where I'm going to have lunch, but there are 70 different places to eat – it's amazing!

Host What effect has the shopping mall had on the local area, Juliet?

Juliet Well, this is an area where there are many people out of work. The shopping mall has created 10,000 new jobs, so it has really helped.

Host How did you get to Westfield today?

Juliet I came by car. There's an enormous parking lot with space for 5,000 cars. But you can also get here by bus, train, and on the Tube – it's the best connected shopping mall in the country.

Host Now, Juliet, the big question is...have you bought anything yet?

Juliet No, I haven't. I was just looking around, really. I saw some pants I liked, but I didn't buy them. There were too many people in the fitting rooms to try them on!

Host OK, thanks Juliet, and now onto a news story of a different kind...

Speaker 1 Last weekend was really awful. My husband and I went camping in the mountains with some friends, and it rained the whole time. It was really depressing. We had to stay in the tent and play cards all day, which was OK to begin with, but then my husband got bored. He started complaining about the weather, and then about our friends, and finally about me! We had a terrible argument, and in the end we came home on Saturday night. I'm never going camping again!

Speaker 2 My weekend was great. I took my wife to Paris, which is somewhere she has wanted to visit her whole life. We stayed in a wonderful hotel, in a beautiful old building overlooking the river. The view was incredible. We ate some really great food, and although it was cold, we had a very nice walk around the city. The best part was that it was a surprise for my wife: I met her after work on Friday, and we drove straight to the airport. She had no idea where we were going!

Speaker 3 I don't have much money right now, so I didn't do anything special this weekend. But actually, I had a really good time! I visited a local museum with some friends. All the museums here are free, and they have some interesting exhibitions about places like Egypt, Rome, and India. We then watched two of my favorite DVDs on Saturday night, and on Sunday I invited my parents to my apartment, and I cooked dinner for them. Not a bad weekend, really.

Speaker 4 My brother and his wife stayed with us this weekend. They have three children, and we spent the whole time playing with them. We took them swimming, we went to the zoo, and on Sunday we went to the park. They have so much energy! And they're really noisy – especially in the morning when they wake up, which is usually around 6 o'clock. I was completely exhausted by Sunday night, but it was great to see them.

5 A))

Speaker 1 Well, I haven't been here long, so I haven't had time to make many friends yet. After I get home from work, I spend most of the evening online chatting with friends and family back home. Twice a week, I take classes to try and learn the language. Most of my colleagues speak very good English, but I haven't been out with them yet.

Speaker 2 I guess you could say I'm a little depressed right now. Time goes really slowly when you don't have anything to do. I spend more time sleeping now, and I have a lot of time to do the housework. It doesn't take all day to make the bed and clean my room, so I get really bored. I hope I find another job soon because I really need the money.

Speaker 3 My life has changed a lot now that I don't have to leave the house to go to work. Things aren't so stressful first thing in the morning now. I just get up, make a cup of coffee, and turn on my computer. It's strange communicating with colleagues online and not seeing them face-to-face. Sometimes, it gets a little lonely.

Speaker 4 Oh, no, I never get bored. There's always so much to do! I like to get up early and read the newspaper while I'm having breakfast. Then I like to go for a walk and do some shopping. After lunch, I go and pick up my grandchildren from school. We spend an hour in the park until their mother comes to get them. I'm really enjoying life right now.

Speaker 5 This is the best thing that has ever happened to me! She's so beautiful that I seem to spend all day looking at her! I don't have time to see friends now, so I keep in touch with everybody by phone or online when she's asleep. We go shopping together, and I do more housework and cooking, but I don't get much sleep anymore!

Host Hello, and welcome to The Travel Program. Now, one of the most popular tourist destinations these days is the amazing country of Brazil. Sonia Medina from the Brazilian Tourist Board is here to tell us all about it. Sonia, what's so special about Brazil?

Sonia Oh, Brazil is a very large country, and there's just so much to see and do there. First of all, there are historic cities like Salvador – the first capital of Brazil – and Rio de Janeiro to visit.

Host Let's start with Salvador. What's there to see there?

Sonia Well, Salvador is in the eastern part of the country on the Atlantic Ocean. It's both an old city and a modern one at the same time. There are a lot of very tall office buildings and great shopping malls there, and the city has a lot of museums – one of the most important is the Museu de Arte da Bahia.

Host What about Rio de Janeiro?

Sonia Rio de Janeiro is a little bigger than Salvador – the population is about six million. It's in the southern part of Brazil, also on the Atlantic Ocean. Rio de Janeiro has churches dating back to the 16th century, famous cultural landmarks, and world-class sports. In my opinion, Rio de Janeiro is one of the most exciting cities in the world.

Host Apart from the cities, what else would you recommend?

Sonia The beaches. There are wonderful beaches northeast of Rio de Janeiro – especially on the peninsula of Búzios, which has more than 20 of them. You can drive or take a bus there from Rio de Janeiro.

Host Is there anything to do in Búzios besides going to the beach?

Sonia Well, if you are a fan of water sports, you can sail a boat, surf, or windsurf. There are also a number of restaurants to enjoy as well as interesting stores to explore.

Host So, when is the best time to visit Brazil, Sonia?

Sonia The main tourist areas are very crowded from December to March, so it's better to go between May and October, when it isn't as busy and hotel prices are a little lower.

Host Thank you, Sonia. Brazil certainly sounds like a very exciting vacation destination. Now, let's look at a different type of vacation...

Dave Hey, Alice. Let's take this quiz. It says you can find out your body age.

Alice Body age? OK.

Dave You first. So...we start with your real age, which is 35...

Alice Don't tell everyone.

Dave Sorry...then we add or subtract years depending on your answers to the questions. Got that?

Alice Yes.

Dave OK, then. First question. How much do you walk a day?

Alice Well, I always go for a walk at lunchtime. So...a lot.

Dave A lot. OK, so we subtract one year, which leaves us with 34. Next question. How many sports do you play and how often do you exercise?

Alice Oh, I hate playing sports. And I don't exercise at all. I guess that means none.

Dave No sports or exercise. Add two years. That makes 36. How much fast food do you eat?

Alice None. I don't eat any.

Dave Great! Subtract a year. We're back on 35 again. How many servings of fruits and vegetables do you eat?

Alice A lot. I have more than five every day.

Dave A lot. Subtract two years. That's 33. Next one. How would you describe yourself mentally?

Alice Um, what do you mean?

Dave Well, are you a positive person, or a negative person?

Alice Oh, right. Um, I think I'm a very positive person.

Dave OK. Subtract three years...Now you're at 30. Next question. How would you describe your stress level?

Alice Mmm, I would say I'm a little stressed...but it's under control.

Dave OK, so we don't have to add or subtract anything. You're still at 30. How many close friends do you see regularly?

Alice Mmm. A few. I don't have much time.

Dave OK...we don't add or subtract anything again.

Last question. How much time do you have for yourself?

Alice Not enough. I'm always really busy.

Dave Add a year...That makes 31. Which means that you are 35, but your body is only 31. What do you think of that?

Alice 31? That's great news! Now it's your turn...

Matt What are you reading?

Amy Nothing. Just my horoscope.

Matt Really? What sign are you?

Amy Virgo. My birthday's on September 15th.

Matt So, what does it say?

Amy It says that people will talk about me next week because of something I've done.

Matt But you don't really believe that, do you?

Amy Well, actually I do...because I've done something that will make people talk about me.

Matt Oh. What have you done?

Amy I sent an email to my boss yesterday complaining about my new colleague. She's really lazy, and she never does any work.

Matt Did you?

Amy Yes. So my boss will ask the other people in my office about this new person and he'll probably ask about me, too. So, my horoscope is right. People will definitely talk about me next week.

Matt Well, don't worry about it. I'm sure everything will be alright.

Amy I hope so.

Matt Anyway, what about me? What does my horoscope say?

Amy Let me take a look. Your birthday's January 5th, so that makes you...a Capricorn.

Matt That's right....so, what does it say?

Amy It says...oh! Listen to this! It says you'll get some money next week.

Matt Really? Maybe I should go out and buy a lottery ticket!

Amy No, wait a minute. Let's think about this. You have a meeting with your boss tomorrow, don't you?

Matt Yes. Why?

Amy Maybe she'll give you a raise!

Matt Oh, Amy! Really! You're taking this far too seriously! I don't believe a word of it!

Amy Well, I do. I think your boss will raise your salary tomorrow. Maybe she'll offer you a better job!

Matt Amy, you're being a little too optimistic. It's only a horoscope!

Speaker 1 I was on vacation, and I was looking around a famous palace, when a man came up to me and asked me to take a photo of him. He gave me his camera, but it wasn't working properly. When I gave it back to him, he dropped it on the floor and it broke. I picked it up and went to give it to the man, but he was gone. Then I discovered my wallet was missing.

Speaker 2 When I went abroad last year for a business trip, I didn't have time to get any local money before I left. So after I landed, I went straight to the bank to get three hundred dollars. I was in a hurry because I had a train to catch. The cashier slowly counted out the bills and when he stopped, I picked them up. When I got to the train station I realized later that I only had a hundred dollars.

Speaker 3 When we were on vacation, two men knocked on the door of our apartment. They were wearing uniforms and they said they were police officers. One of them came in to look around while the other stayed by the door. Unfortunately, while we were talking to the first man, the second man took our wallets and cameras from the bedroom.

Speaker 4 I was having a problem using the ticket machine in the subway when someone came up to help me. He told me how much money I needed and then offered to put it in the machine for me. I counted out the money, but he said it wasn't enough. I gave him some more money and I got my ticket. Unfortunately, I paid ten times the price for it!

Speaker 5 I was waiting at a bus stop, when this beautiful woman came up to me. We started talking, and she invited me to go to a restaurant with her. We had dinner together, and then the waiter brought me an incredibly expensive check. I started to complain, but then I noticed four big men at the door who were looking at me. Of course I paid the check.

Host Hello, and welcome to the program. Do you ever have the same dream night after night? These dreams are called recurring dreams, and psychologist Dr. William Harris is in the studio today to tell us all about them. Good morning, Dr. Harris.

Dr. Harris Hello.

Host Dr. Harris, which is the most common recurring dream?

Dr. Harris Well, at the top of the list is the dream where someone or something is running after you. Either it's a person or a dangerous animal, like a bull or a lion. The dream means that there's something in your life that you don't want to face. It can be a feeling, a conflict, or a memory, for example, but whatever it is, it's something that you don't want to deal with.

Host OK. What's the next dream on the list?

Dr. Harris It's the one where you are falling for what seems like a very long time. Falling is a definite sign that you are out of control. You have lost direction in your life, and you don't know what to do.

Host Yes, I've had that dream before. Not recently, though. Anyway, what other recurring dreams are there?

Dr. Harris This is another fairly common dream.

You're trying to get somewhere but you get lost on the way, and you don't know where you are. People often have this dream when they're going through a period of change. It shows that they don't want to accept the new situation.

Host OK, Dr. Harris. Do you have anymore recurring dreams for us?

Dr. Harris Yes, there are two. The first dream is a good one. Some people have a recurring dream that they are flying through the air. They are enjoying it, and enjoying looking down on the world below. This shows that they are feeling free, possibly because they have solved a problem they had, or they have escaped from a difficult situation in their life.

Host And the last dream?

Dr. Harris This one isn't so good. It's a feeling of being trapped. Maybe you are in an elevator that's trapped between floors and you can't get out. This dream means that there is something in your life that's making you feel unhappy, and you feel that you cannot change it.

Host Dr. Harris, that was very interesting. Thank you for talking to us.

Dr. Harris You're welcome.

Dave Oh, that's ridiculous!

Jane What is?

Dave They've decided to ban jokes about mothers-in-law!

Jane Who has?

Dave The government. They've written a brochure for workers who have to deal with the public, and it says that mother-in-law jokes are "offensive."

Jane Well, I suppose they are, really. I mean, there are a lot of mothers-in-law out there, and the jokes are about them.

Dave No, but it's just fun, right? I mean, I think it's really important to have a sense of humor. It's good for you – it makes you feel better.

Jane That's easy for you to say, isn't it? You're a man, so you'll never be a mother-in-law. I will, one day.

Dave Yes, but you won't be my mother-in-law, will you? Sorry, I was only joking!

Jane Ha ha... Does it say anything else about the jokes?

Dave Yes. It says they show "disrespect for parents."

Jane OK. Well, maybe they do. Young people are healthy, fit, and attractive. It's easy for them to laugh at older people, don't you think?

Dave Oh, come on! These jokes about mothers-in-law have been around since Roman times.

Jane Where did you get that idea from?

Dave It says here that there's a Roman writer named – hang on a minute – named Juvenal who said in the first century A.D. – wait, listen to this – "it's impossible to be happy when one's mother-in-law is still alive." Ha ha! That's classic!

Jane Um.

Dave And all the best comedians tell jokes about mothers-in-law, too. I think they're funny.

Jane Like I said, that's because you're a man. And the comedians you're talking about are also men. It's just another example of the sexist world we live in. I mean, there aren't many jokes about fathers-in-law, are there?

Dave Oh, for goodness' sake!

7 B))

Speaker 1 I like singing while I'm taking a shower. The bathroom is a great place to sing because nobody can hear you – at least, I hope nobody can hear, because I sing really loudly! I usually sing very old classic songs, which I'd never sing in public!

Speaker 2 I always feel like singing when I'm alone in my car on a summer's day. I turn up the radio, open the window, and sing along to whatever comes on. I don't do this in the middle of town, of course; only if I'm driving through the country, but I must say I find it really relaxing.

Speaker 3 I've always really enjoyed singing with the kids I teach – I'm an elementary school teacher. Young children love singing, and they like it even more if the songs have actions. It's amazing how much they learn from songs – there are alphabet songs, counting songs, and all kinds really. We always have a lot of fun when we're singing together.

Speaker 4 Actually, I can't sing very well at all, so I'm always really embarrassed if I have to sing in public. When I was in high school, I had to be in the school choir, but I never actually sang. I just mouthed the words and pretended to sing.

Speaker 5 When I'm out with my friends, we sometimes go to a karaoke in town. It's one of my favorite places because we always have a good time. We spend most of the evening singing together and nobody seems to mind if we do it badly. In fact, it's better if we do sing badly because it makes everybody laugh.

7 C))

Host ... And here's some good news for one of the world's endangered languages. There are about six thousand languages in the world today, and experts say that nearly half of them are dying out. That means that around three thousand languages will disappear in the next century or so. One language in danger of dying out is the Cherokee language, spoken by the Cherokee people of North America. Or at least it was in danger until the leaders of the tribe decided to do something about it. They got worried when they realized that only 8,000 of the 290,000 Cherokee people in the world today actually spoke the language and they came up with a plan. They got in touch with the electronics company, Apple, and asked them to include Cherokee on the official list of languages used on their products.

At first, it seemed impossible that Apple would take any notice of the Cherokee because their products already had fifty languages on them. The big surprise came in September 2006, when the Apple iOS 4.1 operating system was released with Cherokee on the official list of languages. Since then, the Cherokee people have been able to use their language on all Mac computers, iPhones, the iPod Touch, and the iPad. These devices were popular with the younger members of the tribe from the start, but now the older members are taking an interest, too – especially those who use cell phones. So, it looks as if the Cherokee language won't die out just yet after all. And if the language stays alive, the culture will stay alive, too, something that the leaders of the tribe will be very happy about.

Speaker 1 I don't usually talk about my problems, but if something's going wrong, I sometimes mention it to Phil. He's on my basketball team, and we get along OK. In fact, he's the one who introduced me to the girl I'm dating right now.

Speaker 2 The person who I talk to most is my sister. We don't look like each other at all, but we both have very similar personalities. She's a really good listener, and she always gives me good advice. She sometimes tells me her problems, too, and I try to help her.

Speaker 3 My friend Jenny is in some of my classes at college, and I tell her absolutely everything. We're very different, which means we often think in different ways. Sometimes we argue, but we're never angry with each other for long – just until one of us apologizes.

Speaker 4 The person who understands me most is my friend John, who lives next door. We've grown up together, so he knows me pretty well. My main problem right now is my job, which I hate. John thinks I should look for a new one, and he's probably right.

Speaker 5 My grandma lives with us, and I spend a lot of time talking to her. Although she's older than me, she's always interested in what I have to say. We have a lot in common, and some things that have happened to me also happened to her when she was young.

Host Now, everyone loves traveling, and we all enjoy telling stories about the places we've been to. But what happens if there's an earthquake while you're away?

Travel expert, Monica Fields, is here in the studio with us today to give us some tips on what to do in a natural disaster. First of all, Monica, is it possible to avoid them?

Monica Well, no, actually, it isn't. Nobody really knows exactly when a disaster like a forest fire or a blizzard will happen, so you can't really avoid it. What you can do, however, is be prepared.

Host How can you do that?

Monica Well, first of all, if you plan to visit a region where there are natural disasters at certain times of the year, try not to go at that time. For example, there are often bad storms, hurricanes, or cyclones in the Caribbean in August and September, so don't go there then.

Host That sounds sensible. What else can you do?

Monica It's really important to buy travel insurance before you go. This will pay for extra nights in a hotel, for example, if you can't fly home and have to stay at your resort longer than you had planned. I never understand why some people don't get travel insurance.

Host Right. So, what should you do if a natural disaster actually happens while you're abroad?

Monica The first thing you should do is to stay calm and be patient.

Host That sounds easy, Monica, but natural disasters can be very frightening, can't they?

Monica Yes, of course, but if you panic, things will only get worse. Secondly, you need to contact your family and friends at home as soon as possible. If they hear about the disaster on the news, they'll be extremely worried.

Host Yes, I can see that. What else should you do?

Monica Well, it's always a good idea to know what your airline will do if there's a natural disaster. If you are flying to a country where natural disasters are frequent, you should ask your airline when you book your ticket if they will change your ticket if you need to leave the country quickly, or if you have to stay longer because there is a natural disaster.

Host Thank you for joining us, Monica, and thanks for your useful advice.

Hugo Did you watch TV last night, Kim?

Kim No, I didn't. What was on?

Hugo There was a really interesting cooking show on after dinner.

Kim There was? What made it so good?

Hugo Well, it was a sort of experiment, really. They were trying to answer the question: do men and women cook differently?

Kim Really? So what did they do to try to find the answer?

Hugo They invited a male cook and a female cook to prepare five different courses of a meal. Both cooks had to use the same main ingredient for each course, but they didn't have to make the same dish. Then, they served the dishes to a panel of judges, who tasted them, and decided if they were made by the man or the woman.

Kim Who were the judges?

Hugo Well, there were two men and two women. They were all food experts – either chefs themselves or restaurant critics.

Kim What about the cooks? Were they professionals, too?

Hugo Yes. They were from two of the best restaurants in the country.

Kim And what kinds of things did they cook?

Hugo All kinds of things really, but the only ones I remember are a meat dish with garlic and a bright pink dessert.

Kim What was so special about those two dishes?

Hugo I remember them because the judges had real problems deciding if they were made by the male chef or the female chef. In the end, they all got it wrong!

Kim So, did they manage to answer the question, then? Do men cook differently from women?

Hugo Not really. The only conclusion they came to was that it was impossible to tell if a particular dish was made by a man or a woman. That's all, really.

Kim So, it was a waste of time then, really.

Hugo No, it wasn't! I really enjoyed the show, even if they didn't answer the question!

Newsreader And our final story on tonight's program is about an Australian diver who has survived a shark attack. 46-year-old Eric Nerhus was fishing off the coast of Cape Howe, New South Wales, when a great white shark attacked him. He was under the water at the time, and he didn't see the animal swimming towards him. Mr. Nerhus's head, shoulders, and one of his arms ended up in the shark's mouth, but, fortunately, he was wearing a heavy metal vest. When the shark tried to bite the man in half, its teeth hit the vest and not his body. Mr. Nerhus knew he had to do something, so he felt for the shark's eye with the hand of his other arm. When he found it, he surprised the animal by pressing his fingers into its eye. The shark reacted by opening its mouth, giving Mr. Nerhus a chance to escape. Despite his injuries, Eric managed to swim up to the surface of the water. His son pulled him onto his boat, and took him quickly to the shore. Meanwhile, another friend called emergency services. Mr. Nerhus was flown to a hospital by helicopter. He had deep cuts all over his body and a broken nose, but he was very lucky to be alive. Attacks by great white sharks usually result in death because of their size and strength. The shark that attacked Mr. Nerhus was over nine feet long.

Host Hello, and welcome to the program. Today, we have psychologist, Dr. Chris Hopper, in the studio with us to answer your questions about phobias. Hello, Chris.

Chris Good morning.

Host And our first caller is Cynthia Sharp from San Diego. What's your question, Cynthia?

Cynthia Um, hello, Dr. Hopper. Um, my question is actually about my son, James. He's six years old, and he had a bad experience with a dog last night.

Chris I'm sorry to hear that, Cynthia. What exactly happened?

Cynthia Well, we were outside a neighbor's house, and, um, I was talking with the mom when one of her dogs ran out. It was a big dog, um, and it came running out of the house barking. James panicked, and tried to hide behind me, but the dog jumped on him and bit him. It wasn't a serious injury, but we're very worried that he'll be afraid of dogs now. We don't want him to get a phobia. What should we do?

Chris Well, Cynthia, you're right to be worried about this incident because cynophobia, that is, a fear of dogs, is often caused by a bad experience with a dog as a child. The best thing you can do is to give your son a positive experience with a different dog as soon as possible. If you have any friends who have a quiet and friendly dog, go and visit them. Let your son touch the dog if he wants to and don't remind him about his bad experience.

Host That sounds like good advice, Chris. And our next caller is Natalie Williams from Seattle. Natalie?

Her parents ran a theater and Judy first appeared on stage singing a Christmas song with her two older sisters when she was two years old. When she was 13, Judy joined the movie company Metro Goldwyn Mayer and at the age of 16, she played Dorothy in The Wizard of Oz. The movie was extremely successful, and she won a children's Oscar for her performance. Metro Goldwyn Mayer terminated her contract in 1950. However, she continued to perform, and in 1964 she did a series of concerts at the London Palladium. In fact, it was in London where Judy Garland was found dead in 1969. Judy got married five times and had three children. One of these children was Liza Minnelli who was 23 when her mother died.

Liza was born in Hollywood, California, on March 12, 1946. She grew up in movie studios, and, like her mother, made her first stage appearance at the age of two. She was only five when her parents got divorced. After performing successfully with her mother at the London Palladium in 1964, Liza became a professional nightclub singer. She made several albums, and later starred as a singer in the 1972 movie, Cabaret, a role for which she won an Oscar. Despite her successful singing and acting career, Liza has had similar problems to her mother. She has been married four times, but, unlike her mother, she never had children. Today, Liza Minnelli is in her sixties, but she still makes occasional television appearances.

Host Hello, and welcome to the program. Today we have scientist, Doug McLeod, in the studio with us. He's going to tell us about some of the everyday things we know and love that were invented by accident. Doug?

Doug Hello, Janet. Well, I'm going to start with the microwave oven. In 1945, an engineer named Percy Spencer was testing some new radar equipment. He had a chocolate bar in his pocket, and while he was standing in front of the machine, it melted. After that, he also tried using the microwaves from the radar equipment to cook popcorn. Percy realized that microwaves could heat and cook food, and so the microwave oven was born.

Host How interesting! What else do you have for us, Doug?

Doug Next is something that is found in hospitals all over the world: the x-ray machine. In 1895, a German physicist named Wilhelm Roentgen was experimenting with electrical rays in a dark room. He was directing them through a glass tube covered with black paper. Suddenly, he saw a light on a screen on the wall and he realized that the rays could pass through the glass and the paper. After that, he experimented with his own hand, and found that he could see the bones. The first x-ray ever made was an image of Roentgen's wife's hand – you can even see her wedding ring!

Host That's fascinating, Doug. We have time for one more.

Doug Many different kinds of food were discovered by accident, Janet, and I've chosen something that we call potato chips, but the British call crisps. These were invented by a chef named George Crum, who was working in a restaurant near Saratoga Springs, New York. A customer complained that the French fries he was served were too thick. The chef was angry about this, so he fried some very thin potatoes and covered them with salt. The customer loved them, and after that Saratoga Chips became popular all over the US. Eventually, they were produced for people to eat at home.

Host That was all very fascinating, Doug. Thanks for joining us.

Tony Amy, did you study foreign languages in high school?

Amy Yes, I did. Actually, I used to be really good at languages.

Tony Which ones did you study?

Amy Well, I took French for five years, and then I took Japanese for six years, and I studied Spanish for a year during my lunch break.

Tony And how much French can you remember?

Amy Not much! But I can remember my Japanese, because I took it for my degree in college. Why all the questions, Tony?

Tony Well, I've just read this article about the state of language learning in schools in the US, and it isn't looking good. It says that adults only remember about seven words from the languages they studied at school.

Amy Only seven words? That isn't very good, is it? What kinds of words do they remember?

Tony Common words, like hello, goodbye, please, thank you, one, two, and three, and the question Do you speak English?

Amy So, what happens when people are abroad? Do they practice the language?

Tony Not at all. In fact, the article suggests that people often choose not to go on vacation to countries where they have to worry about language problems.

Amy That's probably because they're too lazy to learn a language.

Tony No, it isn't that. The article says it's because they're too embarrassed to try and speak it.

Amy OK. So which languages do students study in school today?

Tony Hang on a minute, there's a list here somewhere... Here it is. It says 50% of students study Spanish, 25% study French, 22% study Japanese, and 2% Russian. Arabic is becoming more popular, too.

Amy And what are schools going to do about the problem?

Tony Well, first of all, they're going to introduce language classes for children in elementary schools. And then they're going to start offering languages from around the world, for example Mandarin Chinese and Urdu.

Amy That sounds difficult. Anyway, Tony, which languages did you use to study at school?

Tony Only French. And I was terrible at it!

Speaker 1 I made a bad decision once when I was traveling home to Washington, D.C. from college in Boston, a trip of almost 450 miles. The choice was going by train or by bus, and I opted for the train because it was quicker. Unfortunately, the train broke down on the way, so in the end I took two hours longer than I expected.

Speaker 2 The worst decision I ever made was giving my son a skateboard for his tenth birthday. On the morning of his birthday, we went down to the park to try it out. Sadly, he fell off the board as soon as he got on it, and broke his arm. We had to cancel his birthday party, and we spent the whole day in the hospital instead.

Speaker 3 I had two interviews and both companies offered me a job. In the first job, they offered me more money, but it was a long way from where I live – an hour traveling every day. The second job was less money, but it was very close to my house. In the end, I chose the second job instead, and I'm very happy I did, because last month the first company closed down.

Speaker 4 One time, I had to decide between a good friend of mine and a boy I really liked. I was going to a concert with my friend, and then this boy asked me to go to the movies with him on the same night. In the end, I said no to the boy, and went to the concert with my friend. I found out later that the boy already had a girlfriend, so I think I made the right decision.

Speaker 5 You won't believe what happened to me! I buy coffee from the same coffee shop every day. One day, I was late for work, so I didn't stop at the coffee shop. Of course, that was the day the coffee shop was celebrating its ten-year anniversary. It gave away tickets for ten-free drinks! Everyone in my office got the tickets, but me!

11 A))

Speaker 1 The worst loser I know is my mom. We often used to play cards together when I was little, and if my mom was losing, it was safer to stop playing. She was always happy when she was winning, but when she was losing, you could see her getting angrier and angrier until she exploded. Sometimes, she used to go out of the room because she was so upset!

Speaker 2 I once had a friend who was a bad loser at tennis. In fact, we stopped talking to each other because of a tennis match. We were about twenty at the time, and on this occasion we were arguing over a point. I said the ball was out and she said it was in. In the end, she just threw her racket into the net and left. We haven't spoken since.

Speaker 3 I have to be very careful at work when we're talking about ice hockey. I have a colleague who gets really upset when his team loses, and he hates it if you make a joke about it. I tried it once, and he just stood up, walked out, and closed the door with a bang. He didn't speak to me for days after that, so I don't think I'll try it again.

Speaker 4 My son is a very bad loser, in fact he always has been. He's 12 now, but he still hates losing. We used to play board games together when he was little, but he always used to cry if he didn't win. I had to choose between letting him win all the time, or making him upset if I won. In the end, I stopped playing that kind of game with him.

Speaker 5 One of the guys who plays basketball with me gets incredibly upset during games, and he spends most of the time shouting at the other players. He's a really nervous person at the best of times, but when we're losing, it really is too much. The referee throws him off the court at least twice a month, and once our coach told him to go home.

11B))

Interviewer Can I ask you about your job, Jerry?

Jerry Yes, of course. Go ahead.

Interviewer What time do you go to bed?

Jerry Well, I don't often get home before six o'clock in the morning, and it usually takes me a little while to relax. It's probably about seven by the time I go to sleep.

Interviewer And what time do you have to get up again?

Jerry I usually get up at one o'clock, to have lunch with my family. After that, I go back to bed again for an hour or so, until about three o'clock.

Interviewer Do you need an alarm clock to wake up?

Jerry No, I never use one. I wake up the first time when my children come home from school for lunch. The second time, my wife wakes me up. That's when I get up for good.

Interviewer How do you feel when you wake up?

Jerry It depends on the day, really. If I've only worked for a day or two, I'm full of energy, but if it's after the fifth or sixth night in a row, I'm absolutely exhausted. That's when I find it really hard to get out of bed.

Interviewer What do you do about meals, Jerry?

Jerry Well, like I said, my first meal of the day is what you would call lunch. Then, I have dinner at about midnight with some other drivers in a cafe. When I get home in the morning, I have something light, like a cheese sandwich or some toast before I go to bed.

Interviewer Would you like to change your working hours, Jerry?

Jerry If I changed my working hours, I wouldn't earn as much money! There's a lot more work at night because people go out for dinner and to the theater or movies, and then it's late and they need to get home, and they don't want to drive because they're tired. I enjoy my job, really, because I meet a lot of interesting people.

11C))

Host And to finish off today's program, we're going to take a look at some famous twins. Let's start with probably the earliest set of twins in history: Romulus and Remus. Now, the legend says that they were abandoned by their parents because twins were thought to bring bad luck. Fortunately, they were found by a female wolf, which looked after them when they were babies. According to legend, the boys grew up, and later founded the city of Rome. After some time, they began to argue, and eventually Romulus killed Remus. As Romulus was the only brother alive, the city was called Rome after him.

Let's move on in history to the 1950s, when a set of twins named the Kray Brothers caused a lot of trouble in London's East End. Ronnie and Reggie Kray were both nightclub owners. They had expensive lifestyles, and through their nightclubs they met several American stars like Frank Sinatra and Judy Garland.

However, they were also extremely violent people, and they committed many illegal crimes in the city. They were involved in many robberies and murders until they were eventually arrested in 1969. They were both sent to prison for life, and they both died when they were in their sixties.

On a happier note, the youngest twins ever to become famous are the Olsen twins. Mary Kate and Ashley Olsen were given the same role on the American TV series Full House when they were only six months old. They played the part of a little girl, and they played the same part for eight years. The producers used both sisters to play the same part so that they didn't break the law on the number of hours a child could work. The show was very popular with American audiences. Today, the twins have grown up, and they have a fashion business.

And I'm afraid that's all we have time for. Join me, Roy Thompson, at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for another two hours of Thompson's Choice. Bye for now.

Newsreader And now it's time for the news. A Florida couple's cell phones were stolen while they were visiting family last week. Mary and Richard Ranieri had left their car unlocked, and someone took their cell phones. Luckily, one of the cell phones had a GPS tracking device. The couple tracked the cell phone to a nearby home. The Ranieris called the police and an officer went to the house. He talked to a man whose grandson had arrived home just after the cell phones had been stolen. The grandson told the officer he hadn't taken the phones, but a few minutes later, someone called the phones, and they began ringing from a closet in the grandson's room.

A tourist had a lucky escape yesterday while she was bungee jumping off the Victoria Falls in Zambia. Twenty-two-year-old Erin Langworthy fell into the river because her bungee rope had broken when she jumped. She landed in the water with her feet still tied to the broken rope, and then she swam to safety. Ms. Langworthy was taken straight to the hospital after the accident, but had no serious injuries.

A Swedish woman has found the white gold wedding ring that she lost over 16 years ago. Lena Paahlsson had taken off the ring while she was cooking with her daughters. When she went to put it back on again, it had disappeared. That is, until yesterday, when she was picking vegetables in her garden, and she found the ring around a carrot. The ring doesn't fit Mrs. Paahlsson any more, but she is going to have it made bigger.

An Australian woman had a frightening experience last night, when she discovered an adult crocodile in her living room. Forty-two-year-old Jo Dodd got out of bed when she heard her dog barking. When she opened the bedroom door, she saw a crocodile in the middle of the room. Mrs. Dodd woke her husband, who called the local Crocodile Management Center, and a crocodile catcher came to take the animal away. The crocodile had escaped from a nearby crocodile farm earlier in the week.

And that's all for now. I'll be back again at 9 o'clock for the next news update.

Alan Who do you think gossips more, Jessica? Men or women?

Jessica Well, I gossip a lot with my female colleagues at work, so I suppose that women are the biggest gossips. What do you think?

Alan Yes, that's what I thought, too, but it says here that it's actually men who are the biggest gossips. That's what the results of this survey say, anyway.

Jessica What survey?

Alan This one here in the newspaper. It says the survey was carried out by a telecommunications company. They wanted to do research into gossiping for a new service they're offering. The aim of the survey was to find out what kind of people enjoy gossiping, and how much time they spend doing it.

Jessica So what did they find out?

Alan Well, they had a big surprise. The study showed that a fifth of the men they interviewed said they spent at least three hours a day gossiping.

Jessica Wow! That's a lot! And where do they usually gossip?

Alan Most of them said they usually gossiped at work. Hang on...I can give you the exact figures. Yes, ...55 percent of the men said they gossiped at work compared to 46 percent of the women.

Jessica Goodness! I didn't realize men had so much to say! Did they tell the researchers what they usually talked about?

Alan Yes. They said that their main topics of conversation were their women colleagues, and who in the company would get the next promotion.

Jessica The part about women colleagues doesn't surprise me in the least. So, what about the women in the survey? Did they say what they talked about?

Alan Yes, they did. They told the researchers that they talked about the problems they were having in their families. They also chatted about what was happening in their favorite TV series.

Jessica OK. So what about you, Alan? Do you ever gossip at work?

Alan What? Me? No, never! I wouldn't dream of it!

Speaker 1 I used to watch a quiz show called What's My Line? It was a funny show. Four celebrity panelists asked a contestant questions about his or her occupation. The contestant could only answer "yes" or "no." After asking several questions, the panelists had to guess the contestant's job. Sometimes there was a mystery guest such as a famous actor or musician. Instead of naming the mystery guest's occupation, the panelists had to guess the mystery guest's name.

Speaker 2 My favorite quiz show is Cash Cab. It takes place in a moving New York City cab. The contestants are people who actually want to take a cab somewhere. When they get in the cab, the driver—who's the host—asks them questions during the ride. If the contestants answer the questions correctly, they win money. If they get three answers wrong, they have to leave the cab. My favorite kind of question is a "red-light challenge" where contestants have to think of as many answers as possible to a question.

Speaker 3 I used to listen to Wait Wait...Don't Tell Me!; a radio news program with a few news quizzes added for fun. There were always three celebrity panelists who made jokes about the news. One quiz I particularly enjoyed was Bluff the Listener. A contestant listens to three silly, but related, news items that are read by the panelists. Two of the stories aren't true, and one story is an actual news story. The listener has to guess which story is true.

Speaker 4 I've always enjoyed the quiz show Who wants to be a Millionaire? It started in the US in 1999, and it's still on TV today. In each show, one contestant is asked a series of questions, and they have to choose the right answer out of four possible options. It's pretty exciting, really, because the contestant can win up to a million dollars if they're good.

Speaker 5 My favorite quiz show when I was a teenager was Rock & Roll Jeopardy! It wasn't on for long—only a couple of years—but I used to love it. There were three contestants who had to answer questions about rock music, but the answers had to be in the form of a question. Each question was worth a different amount of money, and the winning player got his or her score in cash. I used to watch it every week.
